Two Explosions and Resulting Fires in Quick Succession Cause Loss of $25,000 at Longcliffe

Logansport, Ind., April 22.—As Juanita Owens, an attendant, lighted a coal oil stove early today, an explosion followed which destroyed two infirmary wards at the Northern Hospital for the Insane near this city.

Of the 91 patients in the building, seventy-five were helpless or bedridden but by prompt action of the employes of the institution all were taken out uninjured.

Another Breaks Out.

Soon after the first fire was under control, another fire broke out in the elevator shaft of the building and a dust explosion followed.

The fire companies from Logansport were summoned and rendered assistance in extinguishing the flames, which had got beyond the control of the hospital fire fighters.

Roof Falls In.

The roof of the building fell in, but the walls are still standing. The loss is estimated at $25,000. There is no insurance as the state does not carry policies.

The building was erected in 1900. Superintendent Terflinger has called a meeting of the trustees for today, and work on rebuilding will begin at once.

GERMAN PRESS VERY CAUSTIC IN COMMENT

Berlin Newspapers Sharply Criticize Address by Wilson.

Amsterdam, April 22.—Commenting on the address of President Wilson at the luncheon of the Associated Press in New York April 20, the Vossiche Zeitung of Berlin, speaks as follows:

"We could believe in the inclination of the United States after the war to play the role to which President Wilson refers, namely 'to prepare assistance for both belligerent parties,' if Americans during the war had acted in accordance with the principle of assistance to neither side. The purveyors of arms and ammunition to adversaries, cannot all of a sudden, pretend to be the impartial friend of all belligerents in the negotiations at the conclusion of the war."

The Lokal Anzeiger says: "President Wilson is mightily mistaken if he imagines his sort of neutrality will be acknowledged by the belligerents as fair play. It is impossible for Germany and her allies to esteem as a sign of 'self control' one sided patronage by the continued toleration of a most extensive supply of arms, combined with humble endurance of all English oppression of neutral commerce. So far as Germany is concerned, President Wilson need not trouble about preparations for help after the war."

The ideas expressed by President Wilson and referred to in their comment, these two German newspapers doubtless found in the following paragraph:

"Let us think of America before we think of Europe, in order that America may be fit to be Europe's friend when the day of tested friendship comes. The test of friendship is not now sympathy with the one side or the other, but getting ready to help both sides when the struggle is over."

ANOTHER LIGHT POST DAMAGED.

FIVE INDICTED FOR FAIR FUNDS MISUSE

Albany, N. Y., April 22.—Mayor John R. Earl, Postmaster R. Nathaniel Roberts, Ellis Crosby, J. Milton Woodward and Dr. Anderson Crawforth, all of Lockport, have been indicted on charges growing out of the alleged misuse of funds of the Niagara county fair, which was brought to light by a recent investigation.

Announcement of the return of the indictments was made today by Attorney General Woodbury. It is charged that for several years the indicted men were connected with a scheme to divert moneys intended for legitimate exhibitors at the county fair to "dummy" exhibitors, some of them dead men, for "exhibits."

An allowance of $4,000 was made to the Niagara County Agricultural society last year. A large part of this allowance was paid out on fraudulent vouchers, it is said. All the indicted men were officers or directors of the agricultural society.

DAUGHTER DIES AS SHE ATTEMPTS CRIME

Muskegon, Mich., April 22.—Admission that her thirteen year old stepdaughter, Evelyn, whose nude body was found in an alley in the rear of her home this morning, died at 9 o'clock yesterday morning while she was attempting to perform a criminal operation upon her, was made at noon today by Mrs. Albert Steel to Coroner James F. Balbirnie.

The coroner announced that Mrs. Steele confessed after she had been questioned for nearly an hour.

RECEIVER FOR REMNANTS.

Edward W. Pierson Named in Indianapolis Fed League Case.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—Edward W. Pierson, a real estate dealer, was appointed receiver for the Indianapolis club of the Federal league, left behind when the team was transferred to Newark, N. J., by Judge J. Rocheford in the superior court here today. His bond was fixed at $5,000 and he will take charge at once of the ball park here and its fixtures. The receiver was appointed on the petition of Louis Lewis, caretaker, and two stockholders.

Dead Are Taken from Birminghan Wreckage

Birmingham, Ala., April 22.—Searchers are continuing today their work among the ruins of the two retail stores here demolished late yesterday by a falling wall, declared the death list would reach at least twelve. Five bodies have been recovered and seven other persons are said to have been in the crowded buildings when the crash occurred were reported missing.

Both stores were crowded when the old wall, left standing after a recent fire, crashed to the roofs of the adjoining buildings. Three stories in height, they crumpled under the weight of the falling brick, and many of the shoppers and employes in the stores were trapped.

Rescue squads quickly were organized and when flames broke out in the shoe store they were checked without impeding efforts to reach the imprisoned persons. Eleven injured were removed in the first attack on the debris, and hundreds of men [illegible] by [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible]

WHERE WRECKED SAFE WAS FOUND AND NOTE DROPPED BY ROBBERS.

Francis Bulot, engineer for the Wildwood Builders, found the safe carted away by bold robbers from the Peter Tanis home at Lafayette and Wallace streets Wednesday noon in Lafayette place, at the south edge of the city, and notified the police. The engraving shows where the safe was found and the mysterious note dropped by the robbers.

CELEBRATION TO BE HELD EARLY IN JUNE

H. C. Ostermann, Consul for Lincoln Highway, Here to Arrange It.

H. C. Ostermann, consul at large for the Lincoln highway, with headquarters in New York, was in Fort Wayne Thursday to complete arrangements for the taking of moving pictures of scenes along the highway at the time the Lincoln celebration is held here.

Moving pictures of scenes along the thoroughfare will be taken from New York to San Francisco and will be shown in all the principal cities of the country and at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Inasmuch as Fort Wayne is one city out of sixty along the highway in which local scenes will be taken local boosters are anxious to make a good showing.

Ostermann expects to arrive in Fort Wayne with his moving picture operators some time between June 1 and 10. Upon the date of his arrival here the celebration, which was postponed from last fall, will be held.

During his stay in Fort Wayne Thursday Mr. Ostermann was in conference with Van B. Perrine, president of the Commercial club, and Martin Luecke, president of the Rotary club, who are back of the celebration. At Mr. Ostermann's suggestion an industrial parade will probably be given with floats showing the different things that are manufactured in this city. Moving pictures of the parade will be taken.

Governor Samuel M. Ralston has promised to attend the celebration. He will be the principal speaker.

Attorney General Attempts Removal of Convicted Terre Haute Judge.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—State's Attorney General Richard M. Milburn announced today that he would begin steps immediately for the removal of Eli H. Redman as judge of the Vigo county circuit court, Redman, with Mayor Donn M. Roberts and twenty-six others, was convicted here in the federal court in the Terre Haute election conspiracy case and was taken last Sunday to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., to where he was sentenced to serve five years and pay a fine of $1,000 by Judge A. B. Anderson.

Redman was declared elected judge of the Vigo court by ten votes over Charles Fortune, the republican candidate, in the election last November. During the trial it was proved in court to was [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

DAYLIGHT ROBBERS RETURNED TO CITY

Men Who Carried Off Tanis Safe Believed to Have Lay-Up Here.

That the two men who carried away the safe belonging to Peter Tanis, a saloonkeeper at John and Wallace streets, shortly after noon Wednesday, and rifled it of cash and checks amounting to $1,500 did not leave the city is the belief of the police. The theory of the police is that after opening the safe and getting its contents at Lafayette Place, in the far south part of the city, the men jumped into their wagon and circled back into the city and sought a hiding place. That by this time they have gone is probable. No trace of the men or the rig in which they hauled Tanis' safe from the saloonist's room was found in the country, either by the police or Sheriff A. C. Gladieux's men.

Took Plenty of Chances.

The boldness of the job grows as further details are learned. The two men were heard at work battering away with sledge and chisel by several persons, including Saloonkeeper Tanis himself, and his brother John, the man who obligingly assisted the robbers to lift the safe into the wagon after they had dragged it downstairs from Pete's room, where they had failed to get it open.

Pete Tanis says he heard the noise of the robbers as they worked, but thought it was made by the woman who keeps a rooming-house upstairs as she worked away at her washing. John Tanis heard and thought it was Pete doing something. He still thought so when the men hauled the safe downstairs and said:

"Here, John, help to get this into the wagon; we're taking it away to have it fixed for Pete."

"Sure, I will," said John, and he lent a hand and heaved with a right good will.

Goes for Drink; Tells of Safe.

John Tanis washes dishes and does other scullery work about the boarding house and after he had aided the cracksmen he went back to his dishcloths and crockery. He worked for some minutes, discovered himself to be the victim of thirst and with a small bucket of the "growler" breed, went to Pete's saloon to have it filled.

He got a drink, had his bucket filled and then casually remarked to Brother Pete:

"What's the matter with your safe?"

BLOW IS ATTEMPTED AT BIG NAVAL BASE

Russia Insists Attacks of Austrians on Invaders Have Failed.

Today's War News Given in Summary.

The German admiralty announced today that a British submarine was sunk five days ago in Helgoland bay, which lies between the mainland and the island of Helgoland, one of the most important German naval stations. It is said British submarines have been observed and attacked repeatedly in this bay and that others probably have been destroyed.

In Petrograd it is asserted that attacks of Austrian forces on the Russians who invaded northern Hungary have failed. The Austrians attempted outflanking movements along the section of the Carpathian line, where the Russians succeeded in reaching the Hungarian plains, but according to information from Petrograd they were put to rout, with large losses.

In France and Belgium yesterday there was a continuance of the mining operations such as have been under way of late. Small successes are claimed by the Germans, but the French communication gives no new details.

A Geneva dispatch says Austrian and German subjects in Switzerland have been recalled to their respective countries. It is also reported that the Italian government has requisitioned all Italian vessels engaged in trade with the United States.

Berlin, April 22.—The German admiralty today gave out a statement saying that in a certain German bay of the North Sea British submarines have been repeatedly observed recently, and attacked by German forces. Such a hostile submarine was sent to the bottom April 17 and the destruction of other such vessels is considered probable.

The admiralty statement specifies Helgoland bay as the scene of the appearance of the British submarines. This bay lies between the mainland and the island of Helgoland, one of the most important German naval stations.

German army headquarters today gave out a report on the progress of hostilities reading: "In the western arena, south of LaBassee canal and to the northwest of Arras, we undertook several successful mining operations.

"In the Argonne and in the region between the Meuse and the Moselle yesterday saw fierce artillery engagements. After a surprise artillery attack, French forces last night advanced in the western part of the wood of LePretre, but they were repulsed with heavy losses.

"On the northern border of Hartmans-Weilerkopf we destroyed a point of support of the enemy and in the evening we drove back a French attack.

"In the eastern arena of hostilities the situation shows no change."

ALL SUBJECTS CALLED HOME.

Geneva, April 22.—All German and Austrian subjects in Switzerland, even those who never did military service, were recalled yesterday by their respective governments.

News reached Lugano this morning that the Italian government had stopped the trans-Atlantic service with the United States. Passengers who had purchased tickets have had their money returned to them. The Italian government, the report says, requires all the steamships.

NOTHING NEW SAYS PARIS.

Paris, April 22.—The official report on the progress of hostilities given out by the French war office this afternoon contains nothing additional to what was in the announcement made public last night.

Twenty-nine more French generals have been placed either on the reserve or retired lists to make way for younger or more active men. The official Journal contains names of eleven generals of divisions and eighteen generals of brigades who have been removed from active service.

M'COMB POSTPONES GIVING DECISION

Matter of New School in Washington Township is Now Up to Him.

After hearing arguments of attorneys in the controversy arising over the proposed erection of a new school building in Washington township, Thursday morning, Superintendent D. O. McComb declared he would want a day or two to think the matter over. He expects to give a decision Saturday.

Trustee Leonard Stolte and members of his advisory board some weeks ago announced that they intended to erect a new school building of four or six rooms, abolishing a number of the smaller schools in that section of the township. An architect was engaged, who has estimated that to erect a four room building it would cost $20,000, while a six room building would cost $25,000. A remonstrance was circulated and 394 signatures were secured. The petition was presented to Trustee Stolte who turned it down. An appeal was then taken to the county superintendent and upon his decision depends whether the building as proposed by Trustee Stolte will be erected.

The evidence was taken before the superintendent Monday afternoon and the arguments were made Thursday morning. One of the principal arguments presented by attorneys repreasenting the trustee in favor of the proposed school was a statement from the superintendent of the Fort Wayne schools showing that 111 children from Washington township were enrolled in the city schools this year, representing an expenditure of over $2,000 in payment of transfers.

NEAR THE CLOSE OF CONVOCATION

The semi-annual convocation of Scottish Rite Masons in the valley of Fort Wayne will come to a close Thursday evening with the conferring of the thirty-second degree upon a class of candidates numbering about fifty. The convocation has been under way since Tuesday.

Hon. James E. Watson, of Rushville, member of the Indianapolis consistory, delivered the principal address at the banquet Wednesday evening. Judge David E. Smith, of Decatur, delivered the address to the class, and Raleigh C. Parrish, also of Decatur, made the response for the class. Music during the banquet was furnished by the Schlatter orchestra and a male quartet.

The twentieth degree of Scottish Rite Masonry was exemplified late Wednesday afternoon by a degree staff from South Bend, all members of which belong to the Fort Wayne consistory.

HASN'T YET MADE UP MIND IN THAW CASE

New York, April 22.—The question as to whether Harry K. Thaw is entitled to have a jury to determine his sanity remained undecided today in the mind of Supreme Court Justice Hendrick.

When attorneys for Thaw and the state of New York appeared in court to hear his decision, Justice Hendrick announced that he had not time to complete his study of the authorities, but hoped to be able to render his decision tomorrow.

The proceedings, which are based upon a writ of habeas corpus were adjourned until that time.

PASTORS WILL MAKE TRANSFER AFTER ALL

Columbus, Ind., April 22.—Rev. Wirt Lowther, pastor of the First M. E. church here, has been transferred to the Broadway M. E. church at Logansport and Rev. J. A. Sumwalt, pastor of the Logansport church, will come to this city, it was announced here today.

Dr. Lowther some time ago created a sensation by announcing from his pulpit that scandal was being circulated concerning his daughter, Miss Maurine, and demanded a church investigation. It was found there was no truth in the stories but who started them could not be learned. Mr. Lowther asked for his release and arrangements for the transfer were made.

Last Sunday, the local minister announced that he would remain in Columbus, but meetings between committees of the Logansport and Columbus churches held in Indianapolis, resulted in a reversal of the decision. The [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

YES, HE KNEW ALL OF THAT

Roosevelt Made Affidavit He Lived in Washington Before Election.

N. Y. CONSTITUTION WAS PUSHED ASIDE

New Angle in Libel Suit Cross-Examination of the Ex-President.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 22.—During the first part of his cross-examination of Theodore Roosevelt today Wm. Ivins, chief counsel of William Barnes, brought from the former president the statement that he knew the constitution of the state of New York provides that no man is eligible to the office of governor unless he has been a resident of the state for five years prior to the date of his election, and that he had made an affidavit the year previous to his own election that he was and had for some time been a resident of Washington.

Col. Roosevelt's counsel made no objection whatever to the line of questioning which resulted in these statements.

Mr. Ivins sitting or standing directly in front of the witness chair, questioned the colonel in a voice that was scarcely audible to spectators in the rear of the court room. Several times the witness started to make explanatory statements but he was interrupted by the cross examiner and informed that answers, not explanations were desired. The colonel replied to his questioner with great deliberateness, choosing his words carefully.

MASS OF DOCUMENTS.

Confronts Roosevelt in Third Day on Witness Stand.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 22.—Three bundles of paper containing notes and two suit cases of records and pamphlets were taken into the supreme court here today by counsel for William Barnes. The documents were to be used by William Ivins, chief counsel, in his cross examination of Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Barnes himself was said to have suggested many questions for his opponent to answer. William Loeb, jr., private secretary to Col. Roosevelt when he was president and later collector of the port of New York, was an early arrival at the court house today. Mr. Loeb is under subpoena and it was considered probable that he would be the next witness for the defense after the cross examination of the colonel was concluded.

There was some delay in opening court today because of a conference between attorneys and Justice Andrews in the latter's chambers. When the conference was over court was opened. A copy of the report of the Bayne committee, which investigated Albany county affairs, was introduced.

Excerpts Are Read.

Excerpts from the report were then read. The first part had to do with gambling, disorderly houses and the payment of money to various officials for doing various things. The report of the committee was made in 1911.

Called Barnes Beneficiary.

One excerpt was: "The conscious beneficiary of graft, public extravagance and raiding of the municipal treasury, we find, from the evidence, to be William Barnes, himself, as the owner of the majority of the stock of the Journal company. How much more than the majority of its stock he owned he refused to disclose."

AUSTRIAN-ITALIAN DEADLOCK BROKEN

London, April 22.—The deadlock in the negotiations between Austria and Italy has been broken and hopes of a settlement of the questions at issue without resort to arms have been revived in Rome. It is not known by persons other than those closely concerned what change has taken place to relieve the apparently hopeless situation, but Rome assumes that either Austria or Italy has made some concessions.

Italy has been represented previously as demanding in their entirety the Trente and Isteria districts, as well as the Dalmatian islands in the Aegean, whereas Austria was believed to be willing to yield only a comparatively small part of this territory.

Strong Turkish Army.

A strong Turkish army is preparing to offer resistance to the land forces with which the allies expect to attack the Dardanelles fortifications from the rear. An Athens dispatch says the Turks have entrenched themselves strongly along the coast of the gulf of Saros. It is in this vicinity according to unofficial advices yesterday, that 20,000 British and French troops have landed. Turkish encampments along the coast are being bombarded by warships of the allies.

Losses Run High.

The determination of the German offensive and the high cost to the allies of an advance are shown again in the fighting near Ypres, as when the British took Neuve Chapelle last month. Since the capture of hill No. 60 by the British, the Germans have made an attempt to regain this strategic position. The losses on both sides are believed to run into the thousands. As far as has been disclosed the British have succeeded in retaining the hill.

Petrograd reports that during the last fortnight there has been artillery fighting in northern Russian Poland, near the East Prussian frontier. The Russians are said to have won the advantage. The check to the Russian advance in the Carpathians, ascribed in Berlin to Russian defeats, is said in Petrograd to be due to spring floods, which make maneuvers difficult.

STILL THE STORM CENTER.

Fighting in the Region of Hill No. 60 Most Severe.

London, April 22.—Hill No. 60, dominating an area to the southeast of Ypres, continues to be the storm center of the western front, with the British clinging tenaciously to the ground taken by assault last Saturday. Counter attack after counter attack has been so far successfully repulsed, but the British hold is still disputed by the Germans and the end of the lively and costly fighting is not yet in sight. The British losses have not been announced, but they are estimated at well over 2,000. The Germans are believed to have lost more than 4,000 men.

The French drive in the direction of St. Mihiel is about the only other significant move in the west. The condition of the ground, bith in the east and the west, is now being directly reflected in the local operations. The situation along the entire eastern front is for the moment apparently at a standstill, floods having impeded military activity in the Carpathians to a large extent, while practically nothing has been heard of movements in Poland. On the other hand fine weather has prevailed in the west for some days and, barring a heavy storm, the ground will become harder daily, a condition which should cause increased activity on each side. The British press concedes that the taking of hill No. 60 is largely a local matter, but considers this a step forward and great relief to the town of Ypres, so long under bombardment. The Germans, in possession of this hill, were not only above the town, but they threatened the British lines in the vicinity of St. Eloi. The taking of this hill, therefore, reduces the inconvenience of the Ypres salient; strengthens the British lines to the south; gives an advantageous position for further efforts and renders the German offensive in this quarter difficult.

FOOT SHOT AWAY, HE GUIDES AIRSHIP

Aviator's Heroism is Told by Correspondent in French Camp.

Paris, April 22.—A story telling of the heroism of an aviator described as "De M.——" whose father was killed in one of the first engagements of the war, has been sent to the Petit Journal by a correspondent with the northern army.

"De M.——" was sent with a sergeant to bombard a corner of the Belgian coast where the Germans had been showing exceptional activity. They had to pass over a region where Roland Garros accomplished his most sensational exploits and where the Germans had installed a hundred anti-air craft guns. The aeroplane was piloted safely through a storm of shells while the sergeant dropped bombs according to instructions and then turned toward the French lines, rising to a height of 9,000 feet to avoid the hail of shrapnel. Suddenly a German shell smashed the front wheels and hurtled through the machine, severing the aviator's left foot, the aeroplane began to plunge downward but De M.—— gritted his teeth, righted the machine, keeping it headed toward camp. The sergeant, who thought they were done for, supported the pilot with his left arm while with his right he started to pencil a farewell letter to his mother They still had fifteen miles to fly to reach a place of safety.

"Shall I take the helm?" asked the sergeant.

"No, no, you trust to me. We'll get back to France all right," was De M's reply. The sergeant then abandoned his letter writing and supported the pilot with both arms. De M.—— stuck to his task and took the machine safely back to the starting place and crawled out unaided through the hole made by the German projectile. Not until he reached the hospital at Zuydcote did he faint.

DR. JAMES H. FORD DEAD.

Indianapolis, April 22.—Dr. James H. Ford, 67, prominent in Indiana medical circles, died at his home here yesterday. Dr. Ford was chief surgeon for the Big Four railroad company at the time of his death and had been president of the Indiana State Medical society and the International Association of Railway Surgeons. He was an employe of the Big Four railway for nearly forty years.

San Francisco, Cal., April 22.—A British cruiser was reported outside the Golden Gate by Captain Brennan, of the coast steamer Admiral Farragut, which arrived here yesterday. Captain Brennan said the cruiser trailed his vessel down the coast, maintaining a distance of between ten and fifteen miles from the Admiral Farragut.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN INJURED IN CRASH

Cleveland, Ohio, April 22.—Eleven deformed children, on their way to a school for cripples, were injured, three of them fatally, when the bus in which they were riding was struck by a street car here today. The fatally hurt are: Philip Carpell, 8; Theresa Berislavich, 15; Frances Quinlivan, 10. The attendant to the driver of the rig, Hezekiah Finn, 72, was also badly hurt and may die. The wagon was thrown thirty feet by the car. A. Sutton, the driver, said he saw the car coming, but was unable to stop his wagon because a chippled child had his foot on the brake and it was impossible to reach the brake without pushing this child off the wagon.

INDIANA DELEGATES DIVIDED THE VOTE

New York Woman is Again Chosen National Head of the D. A. R.

Washington, April 22.—With the long drawn out fight for control of the national organization of the Daughters of the American Revolution over and with the faction headed by Mrs. William Cummings Storey, of New York, to direct its destinies for another two years, delegates to the annual congress again settled down today to cleaning up the routine business before them.

The results of yesterday's balloting, announced early today, showed that Mrs. Storey had been re-elected president general and her complete ticket was elected to office by substantial majorities. Mrs. Storey received 695 of a possible 1,156 votes, 461 going to Mrs. George Thatcher Guernsey, of Kansas, the opposing candidate.

When the result was announced the congress rose en masse and cheered the successful candidate, in which the supporters of Mrs. Guernsey joined. In an address following the announcement of the outcome of the election, Mrs. Storey pledged herself to work for the good of the organization, urged the co-operation of the delegates and expressed the hope that past differences would be forgotten.

Today's session was devoted to the presentation of reports from committees and by state regents.

The Indiana delegates divided in the vote for president general. Mrs. Frances Robertson, of Fort Wayne, the retiring state regent, voted for Mrs. George Thacker Guernsey, of Kansas, as did most of the representatives of the chapters from Portland, Lafayette and Rushville. The other Indiana daughters generally voted for the re-election of Mrs. William Cummings Story.

At a meeting of the Indiana delegates it was decided to entertain the [illegible]

MAY ALLOW INDIANA COAL MINE "TRUST"

Washington, April 22.—Assistant Attorney General C. G. Todd, in charge of trust prosecutions, indicated an agreement yesterday with the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' association so that the coal mining companies will be permitted to effect a limited combination for purposes of conservation. The president will authorize final action.

A delegation representing the 114 mining companies, whose holdings are estimated to have a value of $30,000,000, was heard by the federal trade commission and by that body advised to present their case to the attorney general.

The mining companies state that they have been harassed by the conditions of their industry and are compelled to conduct their business in a most burdensome and wasteful manner because of the inhibition of any attempt to combine their interests in any manner that might be interpreted to be in restraint of trade.

The delegation representing the mining companies consisted of Carl Scholz, Chicago, chairman; W. S. Bogle, Chicago; John T. Connery, Chicago; Hugh Shirkie, Terre Haute, Ind.; J. C. Kolsem, Terre Haute, Ind., and M. L. Gould, Indianapolis.

WOMAN CARUSDER BESTS OLD ENEMY

Chicago, April 22.—Mrs. Virginia Brooks Washburne went back to West Hammond Tuesday and got revenge for any setbacks she met while as the "Joan of Arc" of the village she waged more or less successful war against vice.

With Mrs. John F. Bass and the latter's automobile she swept around the village, arguing, referring her hearers to Mrs. Bass, loading women and men into the auto and taking them to the polls.

She overturned the "sure" election of Martin Finneran, her democratic enemy of other years. In his place Paul Kamradt was elected on a People's ticket by a majority of 24. The vote was: Finneran, 825; Kamradt, 849. Democratic city clerk and treasurer were elected, as well as two aldermen.

With the people's mayor, however, went in two people's aldermen, whose election also was due to Mrs. Washburne's hard day's work.

MAKES AMERICAN POSITION CLEAR

Stoppage of Shipments of Arms Held Violation of Neutrality.

Washington, April 22.—The American government's answer to the recent memorandum of Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, complaining that while the United States had failed to maintain its right to export food stuffs to Germany it had permitted the shipment of arms to the allies, was before the German government today. The shipment of arms, the ambassador asserted, was not in keeping with the real spirit of neutrality. The American note which had been finally written by President Wilson had been sent by Secretary Bryan to Count von Bernstorff who transmitted it to the German foreign office. The reply is regarded here as a carefully framed statement of the position of the United States and it is believed will clear up any doubt that may have existed as to that position. The attitude of the American government as outlined in the note, is that to stop the shipment of arms during the progress of the war would be in violation of the neutrality of the United States.

The answer explains that the relations of the United States with any of the belligerents can not wisely be discussed with a third government and says that the ambassador's note refers to circumstances which the United States would have supposed hardly up for discussion between the two governments. The language employed by the ambassador in his memorandum, the note says, "is susceptible of being construed as impugning the good faith of the United States in the performance of its duties as a neutral," but the American reply "takes it for granted that no such implication was intended and adds that evidently the ambassador "is laboring under certain false impressions." The note emphasizes the strong ties of friendship between the United States and Germany and points out that the neutrality of the United States "is founded upon he firm basis of conscience and good will."

POOL ROOMS THEIR DOWNFALL.

Seven Chicago Youths Given Prison Sentences by Courts.

Chicago, April 22.—Seven youths who pleaded they entered criminal careers through loitering in pool rooms, were given prison sentences in Chicago courts yesterday. In sentencing Edwin Kremheller, 18, and Thomas Wardell, 20, to twenty-five years in the penitentiary for killing a bartender, Judge Adelor Petit, of the criminal court, said:

"I intended sentencing you to life imprisonment, but I must consider the fact that the pool rooms, where you started on lives of crime, are permitted to operate by the city."

Fiveothers were sentenced to various terms for robbery.

DIES AFTER OPERATION.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—Eugene Lesser, 61, assistant professor of German at Indiana university, died in a local hospital yesterday after an operation. Mr. Lesser had been connected with the university for twenty years and was a former member of the faculty of DePauw.

REPORTS CHARGES OF NEARLY $4,000

Board of Accounts Unable to Settle With Former Officials.

Indianapolis, April 22.—The state board of accounts has reported to Governor Ralston that it has charges aggregating $3,809.30 uncollectible by direct settlement with the persons against a former sheriff of Warrick county, a former mayor of Marion, former treasurers of Sullivan and Jackson counties, a former justice of the peace in Delaware county and a former justice of the peace in Noble county.

The governor transmitted the suits to the attorney general who will submit the cases to the prosecuting attorneys in the different counties in which the officials live with instructions to institute suit to collect the amounts

The accountants hold that there is due from Former Sheriff Scales, of Warrick county, $1,218.75 which represents fees received for committing and discharging prisoners from jail, notifying viewers of highways, summoning juries etc. Scales, it is said, contends that he had a legal right to the fees.

The sum of $717.41 is due from Henry Price, former treasurer of Jackson county, for a three years period beginning January 1, 1911, according to the board. This amount represents an alleged cash discrepancy and a small amount alleged to have been in excess of what he was entitled to receive as a member of the county board of review.

The claim against Thomas E. Ward, former treasurer of Sullivan county, amounts to $128.78.

The amount alleged to be due from Leonidas Whitney, justice of the peace for Salem township, Delaware county, from 1908 to 1912 is $117.25 and from Elijah P. Lash, justice of the peace of Wayne township, Noble county, from 1910 to 1912 is $207.06 representing docket fees and fines unaccounted for.

The accounts explain that Lash was ill at the time they made their examination and that, for this reason, they were unable to give him an opportunity to explain alleged discrepancies.

HER TRAGIC LIFE STORY UNREVEALED

Death Makes Seal on Lips of Hugo's Daughter Eternal.

Paris, April 22.—Adele Hugo, youngest daughter of Victor Hugo, died yesterday at her residence in Suresnes, a suburb of this city, at the age of 85 years.

The sad and tragic life story of Adele Hugo many years ago aroused the sympathy of the entire world. As a girl she was kidnapped at Guernsey by an English officer. All Europe was aiding her parents in hearching for her but they obtained no trace of her whereabouts. Several months later a girl found wandering alone in the streets of New York, apparently demented, declared, "I am the daughter of Victor Hugo." This was the only statement she ever made.

She was sent back to France to her parents but her lips remained sealed until the end and the tragic story of her life never was revealed. She failed to entirely recover her reason and after the death of her father lifed a solitary existence in her villa, morose and seldom speaking. When she did consent to converse it never was of the past. Mlle. Hugo's only appearances in public were when she went to Paris to witness from the back of a darkened box the reproduction of one of her father's plays. Apparently she had no friends and never received visitors.

Workmen reroofing the home of Attorney Joel B. Dow, of Beloit, Wis., found 200 pounds of excellent honey in the attic under the eaves.

CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK CHILDREN NEED "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

A coated tongue means sluggish liver and bowels—Listen mother!

Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has sour stomach, diarrhoea, remember a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills. Give a teaspoonful and in just a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food, clogged in the bowels, passes out of the system and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless fruit laxative and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on each bottle.

Mother, keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." Then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no cheaper size. Don't be fooled.—Adv.

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "TIZ."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." Its grand—its glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.—Adv.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

Fort Wayne Chicken Thieves to Plead Guilty at Bluffton.

Bluffton, Ind., April 22.—The prospect is that Grant Cumferford and Clyde Dubois, of Fort Wayne, will draw sentences to the penitentiary next Tuesday when they are arraigned in court here for stealing poultry in Wells county. The men have indicated that they will plead guilty and seek the mercy of the court. The affidavit filed here charges the stealing of seven chickens from Noah Bennett, a Wells county farmer, and a former conviction in Allen county for larceny. With this previous conviction against them it is not thought likely they will escape prison sentences. Cumferford and Dubois were arrested last week after being pursued and surrounded by a posse of armed farmers under the leadership of Sheriff Johnson and Deputy Albright.

FARMERS FIGHT A FIRE.

Columbia City, Ind., April 22.—Fire broke out in the house of John McCoy in Union township, and did a lot of damage. The fire started by a spark from the kitchen chimney in the roof of the main part of the house. Mrs. McCoy, who was out in the yard, discovered the fire and summoned the neighbors by telephone to come to her aid. Upon their arrival the furniture was carried from down stairs and water was thrown onto the blaze by as energetic a band of fire fighters as any city can boast of. Thirty or forty farmers came hurredly after being called and the fire was under good headway by the time they got there. A bucket brigade was formed and the pump near the house was worked with a vigor that got results. The total loss will be about $600—$375 on contents and $225 on building.

PIONEER OF KENDALLVILLE.

Kendallville, Ind., April 22.—In the death of William Akenhead Kendallville loses another of its old and respected citizens; a man who has been a resident here for approximately fifty years. The end came very suddenly, the grip being the principal cause. Mr. Akenhead was born August 23, 1843,, near Lyons, N. Y. He was the youngest of five children and was the last surviving member of his family. He came to Kendallville when a young man. He was married here December 23, 1866, to Eva Catherine Moody, who died in 1907. Mr. Akenhead was a machinist by trade and worked for over forty years with the Flint & Walling company, much of the time as foreman of the machine shop. He was a veteran of the civil war and a member of Browand post of G. A. R., and of the Knights of Pythias.

DIED IN TOLEDO HOSPITAL.

Columbia City, Ind., April 22.—Mrs. Lew King received a telegram from her brother, Arthur Ellis, Wednesday, stating that his wife had died in a hospital in Toledo and that her remains would be taken back to their home in Bryan, Ohio. Mrs. Ellis was formerly Miss Blanche Liggett, daughter of the late James Liggett, and she was very well known in this city, where she grew to womanhood. She was popular among her friends and associates here, and was united in marriage to Mr. Ellis the latter part of February, 1905, at Huntington. There are three children.

WED 36 YEARS; SEEKS DIVORCE.

Goshen, Ind., April 22.—In the circuit court Almira Mummert has filed suit for divorce from Nathaniel Mummert, a well known Middlebury farmer, who has a 60 acre farm worth $6,000, $2,000 in the bank and personal effects worth $600. They were married April 13, 1879—over 36 years ago—and separated April 20, 1915. The three children, daughters, are all of age. Mrs. Mummert claims her husband has choked and otherwise abused her, that he indulges in drinking liquor to excess and that he called her vile names and ordered her out of their house, threatening to kill her if she did not obey his orders.

THROWS AT HORSE; IS KICKED.

Huntington, Ind., April 22.—The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little, who live on the Warren road, suffered a severely gashed nose Wednesday. The child was playing in the pasture near the house, and playfully threw a corn stalk at a horse nearby. It enraged the animal and it kicked the child, tearing the flesh off her nose. A physician was called at once, and he took her to his office, where he took seven stitches in her nose.

DIES OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Auburn, Ind., April 22.—Bright's disease caused the death of Joseph Pepple, for 47 years a resident of Butler township. Mr. Pepple was 47 years of age and had made his home in Butler township all his life. He lived a short distance from New Era. For the past four months. Mr. Pepple had suffered a great deal from the dreaded disease and death came as a relief on Wednesday.

Mr. Pepple is survived by a wife and three sisters. No children were born to the union. Mr. Pepple was one of the best known citizens in that part of DeKalb county.

CHILD FALLS FROM WINDOW.

Hartford City, Ind., April 22.—Earl, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Carson, residing in the Carrell flats here, was probably fatally injured when he fell from the second story window of his home late Wednesday afternoon, plunging to the pavement below. Mrs. Carson had just started to lead the child away from the window when he opened it in a playful effort to get away and fell out.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Proverbs 8:1-18.

1 Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things: and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the forward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

16 By me princes rule and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.

17 I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

The President's Address

The wisdom of President Wilson's counsel regarding the attitude and the opportunity of the United States in the European war situation, was never more forcefully brought out than in the address which he delivered at the luncheon of The Associated Press in New York on Tuesday. Throughout the trying position of the United States in the maintenance of strict and just neutrality, with the countless intricate and unexpected complexities which have arisen, the president has frequently pointed the wise way and the safe course for his countrymen. The newest utterance is well worthy of thoughtful heed.

Beset by charges that first one and then another of the belligerents were being favored by the course of the United States, the president has gone calmly forward in his delicate duty. The point he now emphasizes is that the national purpose is not the petty desire to keep out of trouble, but the loftier one to help effectively in the adjustment that must follow when the fighting ceases. There is a much greater work to do than fighting, and the United States will be in position as the foremost of the world's nations to lead the way to peace. That will be a glory infinitely greater than could possibly be won by any victor in war, whatever the result of armed contest.

The president's counsel is for toleration, for moderation in speech and action, for an avoidance of partisanship. "America is not all vocal just now," said the president; "it is vocal in spots. I, for one, have an abiding faith in that great, silent body of Americans who are not standing up and shouting or expressing their opinions just now, but are patiently waiting to find out and support the duty of America." That utterance sounds the keynote of the duty of American citizenship. It will not only avoid unfortunate entanglements, but it will put Americans in position to perform a world service when the time for adjustment of difference arrives.

Seven Chicago young men who have just been sentenced to prison terms explained to the court that they had embarked in criminal careers as a result of loitering in disreputable pool rooms. The case of three of the lads, convicted of murder, moved the judge to observe that while life sentences were amply merited by the magnitude of the crime, it must not be forgotten that pool rooms which start young boys on lives of crime were permitted by the city to operate. The court is right. Toleration of low-grade places of this character constitutes a responsibility from which no city which permits this sort of thing can escape. They are breeding places of crime and lawlesness, and the injury they do to youths who frequent them is monumental.

Scores of Fort Wayne voters are daily signing the petition asking the city council to elect a woman to membership on the Fort Wayne school board in June, and organization after organization is throwing the weight of its expression into the balance in favor of the movement. It really begins to appear that there isn't going to be serious opposition from any quarter to giving woman recognition in work in which she is interested, perhaps, as in no other—the education of her children.

The city of Warren, Ill., has just elected a woman as mayor, and although she is 75 years of age, she has announced a policy of reform that means relentless warfare on gambling, grafting and disreputable resorts that portends some extremely lively times as well as a civic renovation in Warren. Something tells us, also, that she means precisely what she says, and that none of the clean-up orders will be attended by the traditional wink that places them in the realm of pure bluff.

Government inspectors, after going over the Fort Wayne postoffice thoroughly declare it to be one of the best managed offices in the country. That being true, we submit that as a sort of reward of merit Uncle Sam hurry along that new postoffice building of which he recognizes this city stands much in need in order to still more efficiently take care of its postal business.

The Fort Wayne Central Leaguers lost the opener at Terre Haute, but Manager Bade Myers wishes it distinctly understood that the result in no wise establishes anything event remotely resembling a precedent for the remainder of the current baseball season.

Illinois voters at special local option elections Tuesday delivered a wallop that put one hundred more saloons out of business in that state.

Gail Martin Says She Can No Longer Stand Bob for Husband.

Stating that life with her husband is no longer bearable, Gail Martin has begun action in the superior court against Robert Martin for divorce. She says that for the past five years he has treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner. He is charged with having no love for his home, spending his evenings away and leaving his wife and child "in constant solitude." Besides this he is accused of being quarrelsome, nagging and fault-finding. Of a son now 5 years old, the plaintiff asks the custody and $5 a week for support. They were married in June, 1903, and separated last month.

Wife Files Cross-Complaint.

In the divorce suit of Jacob E. Soliday against Minnie Soliday, the wife has filed a cross-complaint in which she comes back with some warm arguments in reply to the sensational charges of her husband. She calls him a habitual drunkard, says he has beaten her so she carried black and blue marks for weeks, has boasted of his relations with other women and falsely accused her of wrongdoing. She admits she scratched his face, as he charged, but says she did it in self-defense, while he was choking her. They were once divorced and remarried.

Says She Was Driven From Home.

Myrtle Welsh has sued in the superior court for divorce from John Welsh, and complains of him that he drinks to excess, calls her vile names, strikes and beats her and capped the climax by driving her away from home after falsely accusing her of intimacy with strange men. They were married March 6, 1908, and separated the 20th of this month. An order has been issued restraining him from molesting her at 1502 West Main street and preventing the Nickel Plate railroad from paying him his wages while the suit pends.

Neglected and Abandoned.

Hazel Fowler asks the superior court to grant her a divorce from Raymond Fowler, alleging that he has failed to provide for her support and has deserted her. They were married in July, 1910, and separated three years ago.

Suit to Quiet Title.

Suit to quiet the title on lots 55 and 56 in Orffs place, Fort Wayne, was filed in the circuit court by Minerva A. Chapman, Wednesday afternoon.

Will of Late Joseph Newton.

The will of the late Joseph Newton, of Marion township, was filed in the circuit court for probate Wednesday afternoon. The deceased leaves his entire estate, consisting principally of 132 acres of land in Marion township to his wife, Mary Newton. At her death the estate is to be divided equally among the seven children as follows: Frank Newton, Emma Kenally, Mary Kenally, Sarah Larimore, Ann LaFountain, Joseph M. Newton and John Newton. He asked that his son, John Newton, be named as executor.

Notes of the Courts.

The will of the late Joseph Newton, of Marion township, Henry county, Ohio, has been filed for probate in the Allen circuit court. All his estate is left for life to his wife, at whose death it is to go to their seven children.

A divorce has been granted by the superior court to Emma Reffelt from Harry Reffelt. Three little children were given into custody of the board of children's guardians and homes will be found for them.

The suit of the Terre Haute Handle company vs. Walter and M. E. Reynolds has been dismissed from the circuit court for want of prosecution. The plaintiff has until June 4 to make a move.

County Clerk David C. Stout has received from Samuel Carson, secretary and registrar of Wyoming consistory, No. 1, A. A. S. R., a high Masonic body, the will of the late Walter S. Palmer, government weather forecaster in Fort Wayne, whose death occurred last week. The testament had been deposited with the order at Cheyenne, Wyo., from which city Mr. Palmer came to Fort Wayne four years ago. The will leaves $3,000 and the household goods to the widow, Mary A. Palmer, and the balance of his estate to two sons—Claude R. Palmer and Irving A. Palmer. In the event of the death of Mrs. Palmer before his demise, $1,000 each was left to her two children by a former marriage.

Henry F. Braun, painter, 26, and Louise Doriss Busse, 23.

The will of the late Eugene G. Trenkley has been filed for probate. He leaves his entire estate, real and personal, in fee simple to his wife, Emma A. Trenkley.

The Ten Broeck Tire and Rubber company, of Louisville, Ky., has brought suit in the superior court against Sheriff Emil C. Gladieux for replevin and $200 damages. It is alleged the sheriff is in wrongful and unlawful possession of a lot of tires seized on execution.

In the divorce suit of Gertrude Reed vs. Earl Reed, the defendant has been cited to appear in the superior court April 27 to answer to contemt for having failed to obey the court's order concerning payments.

COMPARES GRADUATES TO SOLDIERS OF WAR

Rev. Michael Aichinger, formerly assistant at St. Peter's, but now of the Cathedral of Immaculate Conception, of Auburn, in his address delivered at the graduation exercises of the twenty-one children at St. Peter's Catholic church, compared the graduates with the soldiers who are ready to leave for the scene of the battle. His address was very impressive and was well received by the large audience which packed the auditorium of the church. Rev. Charles Thiele, assisted by Rev. E. H. Vurpillat, presented the diplomas.

Father Aichinger based his sermon on the class motto, "Against the Current." In the introductory he alluded to the declaration of war in the land of their fathers and forefathers. He drew up a striking picture in the minds of his listeners how the soldiers who were called left home and all to whom they were bound with ties of love and devotion. Thousands of people wished them God speed.

He continued: "We have assembled here this evening to bid twenty-one young graduates of St. Peter's school who are about to set out to fight the battles of life, 'God Speed.' As the soldier must make great preparation, so you, dear graduates, have trained for nearly ten years under able leaders, your parents, pastors and teachers and you are now equipped to make the journey."

The graduates are: Albert P. Berg, Clement T. Clusserath, Charles B. Grothouse, George C. Yager, Anthony V. Yehl, Henry A. Klingenberger, Ferdinand J. Kuentzel, Frank J. Mattes, Omer J. Mettler, Raymond L. Nieble, Ross A. Van Horn, Benedict J. Zern, Elizabeth M. Baumann, Marie M. Blank, Marie M. Himbert, Leona H. Jordan, Luella A. Junk, Mary E. Leonarg, Marie L. V. Waldmann, Marie V. Woodworth, Gertrude M. Wyss.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that Indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acrid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jads Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.—Adv.

PURDUE CLUB MAKES BIG HIT WITH PLAY

"Eight Little Wives," given at the Majestic theater Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Harlequin club of Purdue university, made a most favorable impression and the large crowd that greeted the students were highly pleased. Applause and college yells were frequent throughout the evening.

Members of the cast and the nineteen piece orchestra were all Purdue students belonging to the Harlequin club, which organization stages a play of this kind each year.

"Eight Little Wives" was written by George Ade, the famous humorist, who some years ago graduated from Purdue. For years he has been one of the trustees of the university and has always taken a great interest in its affairs. The success of the play is largely due to George Herbert, the coach, who has been directing the club for the past eight years.

The music was catchy and well rendered. R. H. Dwiggins, as "Ki-Ram," the sultan of Sulu, undoubtedly made the big hit of the evening. The sultan took great interest in learning American ways and customs when his island was claimed by Uncle Sam and changed into a republic. Special mention should also be made of H. S. O'Brien, as "Hadji;" G. H. Smith, as "Major Rice:" D. J. Bellinger, as his daughter; L. B. McKnight as "Pamela Jackson," and B. L. McCullum as "Chiquita."

After the performance a reception was given for the visitors at the Commercial club.

OSSIAN NEWS.

Ossian, Ind., April 22.—Ralph Delbert Koons, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Koons, passed away Tuesday morning after an illness of some duration, the immediate cause of death being due to leakage of the tube to the lung. The child, who was born April 5, 1913, is survived by his parents and one brother, Claude. The funeral takes place today at 2 p. m. at the M. E. church. Rev. J. Orr Powell officiating. Burial will be in Oak Lawn.

Miss Lurah Davison was hostess for the Daphne Girls at a very pleasant gathering Tuesday evening. Miss Mabel Roe conducted the devotions and Miss Susie Bailey read a very good paper on the "Life of David." SUFFERED 15 YEARS WITH PSORIASIS

Weeks at a Time in Such Misery Did Not Get a Night's Rest. Used Cuticura. In 18 Weeks Entirely Well.

107 N. Mesaba Ave., Virginia, Minn.—"Since I was fourteen years of age I suffered with psoriasis. I was suffering for fifteen years. For the first nine or ten years it would come and go but each appearance would be longer and more severe until it refused to leave at all until I got so bad that I could not do any work. At times there was not a place on my entire body, excepting my face and hands that was not covered. Weeks at a time I would be in such misery that I did not get a night's rest. My body was covered with shiny white scales and under them was as red and inflamed as blood. They would crack open some half an inch in length.

"My husband was telling a friend of the condition I was in, and he too had been a sufferer of the same trouble and had been healed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I at once commenced the treatment. In eighteen weeks I was entirely well." (Signed) Mrs. Edwin Mitchell, June 22, 1914.

DYSPEPSIA GONE! NO INDIGESTION. GAS, SOURNESS—PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Time it! In five minutes your sick, upset stomach feels fine.

When your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.

SOUTHERN ROUTE HAS BEST CHANCE

While it makes little difference locally which route is selected for the proposed Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal, Fort Wayne promoters are of the opinion that eventually the southern route will be accepted.

This opinion is based on the theory that the ground is much leveller and would not require the building of near as many locks as the northern route.

H. C. Gardner, chairman of the waterway committee of Chicago, has issued a statement declaring that the Calumet basin must be used as the canal terminus, which would mean that the southern route would have to be accepted.

Everything is in readiness for the visit of the army board to Fort Wayne next week, at which time Captain L. H. Watkins' report will be thoroughly gone over for the first time. If the report is rejected announcement of the fact will be made before the board leaves the city. It is not expected that this will be done.

BEWARE OF SUBSTITUTES

CAUTION! When buying W. L. Douglas shoes look for his NAME AND PRICE stamped on the bottom. Shoes thus stamped are always worth the price paid for them. For 32 years W. L. Douglas has guaranteed their value and protected the wearer against high prices for inferior shoes by having his NAME AND PRICE stamped on the bottom before they leave the factory. Do not be persuaded to take some other make claimed to be just as good. You are paying your money and are entitled to the best.

If you could visit the W. L. Douglas factory at Brockton, Mass., and see how carefully the shoes are made, and the high grade leathers used, you would then understand why they look and fit better, hold their shape and wear longer than other makes for the price.

If your dealer cannot supply you with the Illustrated catalog, write for it and it will be sent by mail.

Society

Mrs. Daniel Milligan entertained a few young women this afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Menefee, at a party of charming arrangements both in coloring and other details. It was really a pink party for that color appeared frequently in the flowers, in the menu for supper and in numerous bows of tulle and ribbon-tied packages that constituted a "shower" of gifts for Miss Menefee. The supper table was quite beautiful with its luncheon set of Florentine lace, its basket of daisies, swansonia and sweetpeas blossoms and airy bows of pink tulle were tied on candlesticks and on the handles of small china baskets of rose design filled with candy and on crocheted lace baskets of nuts. There were heart-shaped cakes frosted in pink and ice cream to correspond and a number of other pretty appointments that delighted Miss Menefee and the dozen intimate friends invited. A bouquet of flowers marked Miss Menefee's place at the table.

An announcement party of much beauty of arrangement was given by Miss Irma Malone, of 1724 West Main street, Wednesday evening when she entertained a dozen young women and at supper time gave the date of Wednesday, May 26, as the day of her coming marriage to L. A. Baker, a son of A. J. Baker. Miss Malone served supper early in the evening and was assisted at the time by Mrs. Groves, Mrs. Fagan and Miss Jessie Malone. When the guests were seated at the supper table they found in baskets of flowers their place cards and on the reverse side from the name was written the date of the wedding which is to take place in the Cathedral. Ribbons leading from baskets were gathered under a crystal basket filled with snapdragon blossoms, mignonette and sweetpeas, pink and lavender being the colors. After the desert course the young ladies were asked to pull on the ribbons and when they did each received a corsage bouquet. There were present to enjoy this happy prenuptial party Misses Fannie Matson, Marie Calkins, Margaret Misner, Josephine and Marie Kelly, Marie and Hilda Pierre, Dorothy Kilgore, Merle Matson, Helen Gerow, Helene Clifford, Hazel Malone.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mitten, of Lima, Ohio, are guests for a few days of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Flagle.

Miss Frances Embry, or Huntington, will arrive in a day or two to visit Miss Sidonia Herring, of Masterson avenue.

Mrs. Edward Kaile and Miss Wickert, of Butler, are visiting Mrs. Kaile's sister, Mrs. J. W. Stahl, of West Wayne street.

The Jolly Six hiked to New Haven on Sunday afternoon and enjoyed the walk. The club members are Misses Laura and Ruth Quickery, Luella, Gertrude and Irma Lankenau, Gladys Allway.

The U. R. W. club members spent a pleasant evening on Tuesday at the home of Miss Helen Dodane. Members of the club are Misses Helen and Zoa Dodane, Minnie Witte, Gladys Allway, Luella and Gertrude Lankenau. Miss Lankenau will be the next hostess.

The popular concert annually given by the Morning Musical society will be on Monday, April 26, in the Majestic theater. As is customary the admission will be ten cents to any part of the house. No seats are reserved. An unusual program is being arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hunting and sons, Stanley and Billy, leave tonight for a five or six weeks' trip to California and the expositions.

Rev. Dr. Moffat and Mrs. Moffat are to have a family reunion soon as Dr. Moffat's two married daughters are coming home for a visit. Mrs. R. F. Kautz and son, David, Moffat Kautz, of Indianapolis, are expected tomorrow, and Mrs. Ben Ninde, of Chicago, is coming in May for a visit of several weeks. Another visitor who was a Fort Wayne girl before her marriage, who will join Mrs. Ninde here for a few days, will be Mrs. Rohler, also of Chicago, who will be well remembered as Miss Ethel Ninde.

Fifteen little friends of Bernadine Marsack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Marsack, called Sunday afternoon to help celebrate her sixth birthday anniversary. All kinds of games were enjoyed. At six o'clock an appetising luncheon was served. The table was prettily decorated in pink and the guests received dainty favors as souvenirs of the day. The guests were Selma Levey, Florence Berman, Sylvia Berman, Florence Grashin, Esther Sivit, Iren Neiman, Gilbert Meyer, Boren Novitsky, Silvia and Herbert Winroube, Mildred Hardung, Lilian Frauenfender, Anna Salivay, Joe Saffron.

A pleasant surprise was given yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Piepenbrink, to honor the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Mrs. Kelly. Music and games helped to while away the hours in an agreeable manner. Prizes in contests were earned by Mrs. L. Neireiter, Mrs. F. Wagner, Mrs. W. Washburn and Mrs. H. Subkowski. Others in the party were Mesdames B. Steward, J. Garrison, E. Smith, Rauch, L. Smith, A. Crisamore, Carroll, G. Vallrop, F. Hackman, H. Hackman, Sherwood, F. Gronau, Hockmeyer, W. Boble, C. Noble, Bennett, B. Waddington, Sherman, Fredericks, Doenges, Miss Irma Lupke.

The many friends in Fort Wayne of Miss Loretta Hayes, a Fort Wayne girl, who is pursuing her vocal studies in New York city, are hearing with pleasure that she has a chance to appear in light opera during the coming summer at seashore summer resorts in an important role opposite Francis Adair. Miss Hayes is a pupil of Mrs. E. H. Kirkland, but has been studying for some months with Signor Yon, of the Metropolitan, who predicts a future of success for the young woman. Miss Hayes has a position in a business office in New York and is earning her way as she is a capable stenographer and had had considerable experience here before she went away. Miss Hayes will appear in a song recital in the Yon studio within a few weeks.

AT THE NEW PALACE

PHOTOS AS SOUVENIRS.

New Palace Will Give Pictures of Alexander Kids Saturday.

As a special feature of the reception to be tendered by the Alexander Kids for all the school children in Fort Wayne on the stage of the New Palace theater Saturday afternoon, specially posed photographs of the talented youngsters will be given each guest. The Alexander Kids are two of the most precocious youngsters on the vaudeville stage and are just as remarkable off the stage as on, as they have been as carefully tutored in the customary school branches as they have in their dancing and singing numbers. They are delightful youngsters, modest to a degree, although in no wise diffident or shy. The dances these children have been taught would be remarkable even for regular grown ups, but when executed with charming grace by two little tads they are revelations.

The entire B. F. Keith road show is one calculated to bridge over the chasm between prosaic everyday life and the land of joy, for it includes in its roster such consummate artists as Laddy Cliff, the English boy comedian, in his inimitable group of songs and eccentric dances; Will Oswald, the famous American lyric tenor and associate singers, in the musical novelty, "At the Club;" Charles Cartmell and Laura Harris, the renowned singing and dancing duo; the Tuscano Brothers in their unique battle axe juggling; Billy Lloyd and George F. Britt, the vaudeville monkeyshine team, and the international bicycle poloists in an exacting game of polo played on wheels.

AT THE MINUET.

The Minuet offers a great bill today. This pretty theater is certainly getting the business. The management is to be congratulated by the movie fans for the splendid plays and good clean comedies.

Today the great Pathe Frere's three-reel drama, "The God of Wrath," telling the story of sin punished as never before known; a play full of dramatic interest from start to finish. Just released, the film is clear as day and Ruth Roland takes the lead. In connection the Minuet offers "The Troubles of Rufus," a rollicking comedy.

There will be pleasure without end in this tremendously funny film story of the antics, the woes and the predicaments into which the characters fall.

Tomorrow the famous actor, Carlyle Blackwell, in the well known picture, "The Key to Yesterday."

AT THE COLONIAL

"THE WOMAN WHO DARED."

Sensational Melodrama With Thrills and Love Interest.

How a young woman matches her wits against those of the diplomats of a hostile nation, wins and saves her husband from a traitor's death provides the concomitant interests in this intensely thrilling five part drama, "The Woman Who Dared." The play is not strictly a war picture, but it vividly depicts diplomatic intrigue of the sort that lead to the cataclysmic struggle in Europe.

There are any number of exciting moments throughout the plot, one of the most striking incidents being a remarkable race between a high powered racing machine and a locomotive.

The long awaited "Alice in Wonderland" pictures come to the Colonial tomorrow, a brilliant $50,000 production of the famous fairy tale.

AT THE LYRIC.

"On the Night Stage," a Mutual Masterpicture Featuring Two Celebrated American Actors, Robert Edeson and W. S. Hart at the Lyric Today and Tomorrow.

In producing this virile drama of the Golden West, care was taken to set the scenes in a typical frontier town with towering mountains for a background. The wild, free atmosphere of hill and plain prevades the picture, while excitement, thrill and danger enliven the action. For it is a story of real manhood in the making—a narrative of adventure and daring deed. It is a drama with a big theme—that love and friendship, after all, are the things worth while.

Mr. Edeson plays the part of a fighting parson and there is a wonderful scene in which he battles single-handed with a crowd of cowboys. For the most part, however, his acting is characterized by that sincerity and earnestness that befits the role.

Mr. Hart as the avenging road agent, gives a most remarkable portrayal of a "two-gun man"—a diamond in the rough—who is redeemed from the dangerous life of a bandit by the transforming power of a great love.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

BELASCO'S "MAY BLOSSOM."

Famous Old Drama Revived on the Screen at Jefferson.

In "May Blossom" is contained every surprise, suspense and dramatic intensity that have made the name of Belasco synonymous with the best genius of the American stage.

"May Blossom" relates the story of a girl beloved by two men, one of whom does not hesitate to lie in order to win her for himself. He tells her the other, the favored suitor, has gone away never to return, when he has been intrusted by his rival on the eve of his arrest by Northern soldiers as a spy, to explain to the girl that he will vindicate his honor and return to her. With the continued absence of her lover, May turns to her deceiver and finally marries him. Eventually the other returns, and the stress of the drama developed through this thrilling climax may be easily imagined.

Tomorrow marks the appearance at the Jefferson of Henrietta Crosman in "The Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch."

YOUNG COUPLE HAVE PRETTY HOME WEDDING.

MR. HENRY F. BRAUN.

MRS. HENRY F. BRAUN.

A beautiful home wedding took place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Busse, 2311 Weisser Park avenue. The bride was the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Busse, Miss Louise D. Busse, and the groom was Mr. Henry F. Braun, son of Mrs. Catherine Braun. There were no attendants. Rev. Henry Luebr, pastor of Zion's Lutheran church, officiated at the marriage service and relatives were guests. Music as the bride and groom entered the living room was furnished by Messrs. Bruner and Weitzman, violin and piano players, who rendered the bridal march from "Lohengrin" and played during the ceremony. The bride presented a very attractive and sweet appearance in a very pretty gown of ivory charmeuse over which hung fillet net made in graduated tucks for drapery and with bolero jacket of the net with lace that matched it for an edge. The dress was made with a long train over which the folds of the tulle veil the bride wore, fell gracefully. The veil was fashioned into a cap for the head and was edged with lace that matched that of the dress. [illegible] bride and groom. A group of palms and ferns was arranged as a background for the bridal couple to stand as they plighted their troth by exchanging rings. The wedding dinner was served at 5 o'clock and was a bountiful one with smilax and roses decorating the tables and extending from the chandelier to the corners of the table. Fluffy bows of white tulle were tied to the candlesticks that held white candles and the effect of white and green was lovely. After May 1, the bride andgroom will be at home with the bride's parents as the upper part of the house is to be converted into an apartment for them. For traveling the bride wears a suit of blue poplin with pale pink chiffon blouse and a hat of sand shade of hemp braid trimmed with facing of pink and with tailored pink velvet bows and a cluster of flowers. An informal reception follows the dinner this evening at which the bride and groom, together with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Busse and Mrs. Braun, will receive the guests while Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dickemper, sister and brother of the bride, and Mrs. Kathryn Fuhs will assist in the [illegible]

I just helped them fellers put it in a wagon to get it fixed."

Pete didn't wait for much more, but rushed upstairs to find his safe gone. He didn't notify headquarters, but hastened to the home of Detective Sergeant William F. Pappert, on John street, and there reported the robbery. Then headquarters got the first inkling of the [illegible] job.

[illegible] of valuable time, of which [illegible] lodging in the clutter of buildings about the Tanis saloon stood in the yards and on the streets and saw the robbers haul the safe down the stairs and place it in the wagon. They gave the incident the attention of mild curiosity and said nothing, the part John Tanis had taken in the removal fully extinguishing suspicion if they had any.

The outer door of the safe was removed with chisel and sledge in the room of Pete Tanis. Fearing the noise might cause interruption if kept up too long the robbers decided on an audacious step and they got away with it. Out on the Lafayette Place addition they removed the inner door and found the key of the little strong-box in the door. The rest was easy.

The cash was mainly in bills of large denomination and belonged to foreign laborers who had been in the habit of making Pete Tanis custodian of their funds. There were a lot of checks. A certificate of deposit for $300 from the First National bank to Yan Laze and another for $125 payable to George Stiff were found where the robbers abandoned the safe. George Anweiler, a construction foreman, found $15 in cash at the scene.

Engineer Finds Safe.

Francis Bulot, engineer in the employ of the Wildwood Builders company, discovered the safe less than an hour after the robbery had occurred, and for a time thought it had been dumped there with some junk. However, when he saw that it still had some papers in it, he took the contents to the Wildwood office and from there to the police station.

The place the safe was discovered was within two hundred feet of Calhoun street, near Pettit avenue in the Wildwood company's new addition, Lafayette place. Although the grove is rather heavy the place at which the safe was found is plainly visible from Calhoun street.

MOSS WILL RETALIATE.

Arrested for Vote-Buying, Will Now Seek Federal Probe.

Paris, Ill., April 22.—A federal investigation of alleged election irregularities here by the United States grand jury at East St. Louis next month is to be sought by H. Clay Moss, who was arrested here Tuesday night on a charge of vote-buying that day. Moss declared today that he would take last November's election before the grand jury in retaliation for his "false arrest." A hearing of the charge against Moss and Mrs. Hattie O'Neil, also arrested on a charge of vote buying, will be held next Tuesday.

LUCKY STONES FAIL HIM.

Boston Jeweler Convicted of Fraud Despite His "Charms."

Boston, April 22.—Walter I. Rand, a jeweler of this city, was found guilty by a jury in the federal court of using the mails in a scheme to defraud through the sale of alleged "lucky stones" in many parts of the country. Purchasers of the stones who were called as witnesses by both the prosecution and defense during the trial gave conflicting testimony as to the apparent efficiency of the "charms" in bringing them luck in poker games, love affairs, cases of illness and efforts to obtain work.

The jurymen, who were each presented with one of the stones by Rand before they retired, brought in a verdict after forty-five minutes.

MASS MEETINGS TO URGE FLOOD WORKS

People Will Be Enlightened on Big Project to Control the Rivers.

Ward and township mass meetings will be held, beginning perhaps early next week, to enlighten the people of the city and county on the new flood prevention law under which it is purposed to take measures against future disasters by high water. At these meetings the scope and objects of the new law will be made plain and property owners will be urged to sign the petitions asking the courts to establish the drainage district already outlined and to create a flood commission to carry out the program of flood prevention works. Meetings will be held in each ward and probably in each of the townships that are included in the proposed flood district.

The petitions have been completed by County Auditor Will Johnson. They contain the names of all the property owners in the proposed district alphabetically arranged, with the description of the property owned by each. Opposite this is a blank space for the signature of the petitioner. These petitions will be carried to each property owner by men selected for the work. It is hoped to save time and a great deal of expense by getting signatures at the mass meetings that have been planned.

City Attorney Guy Colerick and County Attorney E. G. Hoffman arranged for a conference Thursday afternoon to prepare a digest of the new law that a copy of it may be attached to each book of petitions so that the measure may be fully explained to each property owner solicited to give his signature. Under the flood prevention law passed for this county the signatures of more than 50 per cent. of the property owners are necessary to make the petition valid in the court asked to establish the flood prevention or drainage district. When the district is created the board of county commissioners and the city board of works become a joint drainage commission to carry out the plans for flood works.

LAKE AVENUE TO COME UP.

Board Will Give Hearing on Resolution to Pave East End of It.

There will be a hearing Thursday evening before the board of public works on the resolution to pave that portion of Lake avenue lying between the west line of Anthony boulevard and the city limits, a distance of about 900 feet. The resolution calls for a pavement of tarvia-filled macadam and it will be up for confirmation. There is some prospect of a remonstrance. Two of the resident property owners have objected to the improvement unless the grade of the street is relocated, by cutting it down some three feet. The city board and the county commissioners, which bodies have agreed on paving the street—part of which is not in the city, have refused to consider a change of the grade.

The board will have up for confirmation the assessment rolls for the opening of Barr street from the south line of Ormiston heirs' addition to Rudisill boulevard, and the resolution for vacating the south sixty-six feet of the alley east of Fairfield avenue, in Robert's Place addition.

YES, HE KNEW ALL OF THAT

Albany politics were then admitted to the record. The terms "machine politics," "Boss Barnes and Boss Platt," appeared repeatedly in these articles.

"Conspiracy" Also Mentioned.

"The Murphy-Barnes conspiracy" was also mentioned in the articles. After the articles were read, Col. Roosevelt resumed the stand. In reply to questions by Mr. Bowers he said:

"I received a letter from Mr. Barnes about the state printing house after I had recommended that one be established. Mr. Barnes called upon me later and said such a printing house would be in line with socialistic propaganda, which would interfere with enterprise in private business."

Col. Roosevelt then explained how he gave out the offending statement. "I dictated the statement and gave it to Mr. McGrath, my secretary, and told him to give it to newspaper correspondents at Oyster Bay. I desired the statement to be published in full throughout New York state. I believed it would receive some publicity outside the state.

"I wanted to reach the voters. I knew of no other means except the newspapers."

Cross-Examination Begins.

The cross examination then began with Mr. Ivins asking Col. Roosevelt about his early life.

"Did you ever study the constitution?"

"I did while I was studying law in Columbia university. Later, however, I became an author."

"Then you were the [illegible] investigated certain officers in New City.

"That was during your second year in the legislature wasn't it?"

"Oh no, I think—"

Mr. Ivins interrupted the answer. He said, "I want answers Mr. Roosevelt, not suggestions."

"Do you know it had been the custom of legislative committees to conduct ex-parte investigations?"

"Some have done so. My committees always tried to do justice to both sides."

"Did you follow the rules of law during your investigations?"

Because He Did It.

"How do you know substantial justice was done?"

"Because I did it. When I do anything I try to see to it that justice is done."

The witness then described his campaign for mayor of New York on a republican-citizen tickets in 1886.

"Isn't it a fact that the only nomination you received was the republican?"

"I don't think so."

"Is your memory good?"

"It is pretty good."

"It has been good about certain things you have told here hasn't it?"

"Yes."

"How was your campaign carried on?"

"Principally by speeches. Some times at republican meetings and some times at citizens meetings. I was a republican."

"That was on the campaigns in which you were unsuccessful?"

"I was beaten."

"Then you took to your ranch?"

"Yes. I had been there before, however."

"While you were at the ranch you occupied yourself as an author?"

"Yes."

"When did you leave the ranch to become civil service commissioner?"

"In 1889."

His Payment of Taxes.

"Did you pay taxes in Oyster Bay for the next six years after that?"

"I lived there or in Washington."

"Did you pay any personal taxes in Oyster Bay?"

"My memory is that I did."

"Do you remember when you did not pay personal taxes in Oyster Bay?"

"Yes, I paid them in New York while I was police commissioner."

"How long were you police commissioner?"

"I was on the police force for two years."

"You testified yesterday that in 1896 that you resided in Washington, is that right?"

"Yes, I was living there for the purpose of carrying on my duties as assistant secretary of the navy. I was there about a year."

"In 1897 did you pay any taxes other than real estate in Oyster Bay?"

"I don't [illegible] personal taxes either in New York or Oyster Bay in 1897?"

"I remember nothing about it."

"In 1898 did you appear before the tax commissioners in reference to your assessment."

"I don't remember."

A photograph of a tax notice sent to the witness in 1898 was introduced in the evidence. "Do you remember making an affidavit in 1898 about your New York tax assessment?"

"Yes. I made it in Washington."

The affidavit was identified by Col. Roosevelt and read. In it Col. Roosevelt said that since 1897 he had not lived in New York and that he was then a resident of Washington.

Mr. Ivins then read section 2, article provides that a person is not eligible for the governorship unless he for five years continuously had been a resident of New York state.

Col. Roosevelt said he first saw that part of the constitution after his return from the Spanish war. "I now call your attention," Mr. Ivins went on, "to a paper signed by Secretary of War Alger. It is a commission of lieutenant colonel of volunteers given to you in 1898. In this Col. Roosevelt is described as a resident of Washington."

At that point a recess was taken.

A Garbage Can Doesn't Amount to Much---But It May Uphold a Reputation

Have you ever glanced over the back fences at the garbage cans in the back yards of a row of city houses? Not a very inspiring prospect, to be sure; but nine times out of ten you can tell the kind of people that live in a house by the looks of the garbage can.

No good housewife wants the neighbors talking about a rusty, leaking, battered, old garbage can, smelling to heaven in her back yard. She don't want it, and she won't have it.

A large shipment of heavy galvanized garbage cans, with patent locking cover which dogs cannot knock off, is placed on special sale today. Two sizes are included, at 69c and 75c, which are regular 75c and 98c values.

CUBS DROP THE SEASON'S OPENER

Humiliated by the Voters in First Contest of the Year.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 23.—In a two hour game in which fourteen hits were scored against Ainsworth while the Cubs got seven hits off Nehf, and in which the grand total of errors ran to eight, the Highlanders walloped the Fort Wayne delegation 6 and 1 in the opening game of the league season yesterday. At no time in the game did the visitors seem to have even a slim chance.

Of the six two-base hits Beyers and Lang got one apiece, while Thomas and McCarthy evenly divided the other four. Leber scored the season's first run when he singled to right in the first and scored on McCarthy's double.

McLafferty opened the second round for the visitors with a three-bagger to left, Marshall singled and a moment later grabbed off second on a bad throw by Hartle. Hartle and Nehf went out and Thomas doubled, scoring Marshall.

But the big noise came off in the fifth. It was here that the visitors weakened for a few minutes and allowed the last three runs to pile up on them. It was Thomas again in this inning who started things. He landed a double to right after which Gray fanned, and once more McCarthy did it for two bases, bringing Thomas home for the first run of the inning. Vann singled, advancing McCarthy to third, and a double steal took McCarthy home. Tuman then threw wild twice in succession, advancing Vann to third and then home.

The Cubs' little only was scored in the seventh after Beyers had been hit by a pitched ball and went to first. Ainsworth flied out and Smith singled to center, and when Brant singled he scored Beyers.

The crowd was one of the largest that ever opened a league season in this city, and the stands were packed. The score:

MATCH IS POSTPONED.

Fred Welsh Injures Shoulder and Columbus Bout Is Cancelled.

Columbus, O., April 22.—Promoters of the boxing bout between Fred Welsh, the English lightweight, and Johnny Harvey, of New York, received word today that Welsh injured his shoulder in his bout with "Red" Watson at Hudson, Wis., Tuesday night and would not be able to meet Harvey here tomorrow night. The match was postponed indefinitely.

JESS GETS $13,000 FOR LICKING NEGRO

Chicago, April 22.—Thirteen thousand dollars was the sum Jess Willard received for defeating Jack Johnson at Havana, the heavyweight champion told friends here yesterday.

"Johnson received $30,000 and when I defend my title I am going to get the same amount of money he did," Willard said. The champion handed Charles Cutler, the wrestler, who first attempted to develop him as a heavyweight boxer, a check for $1,250 as compensation for the Chicago man's services.

Cutler obtained a judgment against Willard in Milwaukee for $2,500, but when they met yesterday a compromise was reached and Cutler cut the judgment in half.

SEVEN PLAYERS DROPPED.

Manager Mack Unloads Crew Before Start for Boston.

Philadelphia, April 22.—Seven players were dropped from the roster of the Philadelphia American league baseball club by Manager Mack last night before the team left for Boston. Four of these released were sent to minor league teams and three were let go unconditionally. Sam Crane, shortstop, goes to Richmond, Hank Bostick, another infielder, to Newark, and Joe Sherman, outfielder and pitcher, to Jersey City in the International league. Pitcher Gardiner goes to Newport News while Voltz, Hamilton and Reed are released unconditionally.

Pitchers Wilbur Davis and Harper and Sam McConnell, an infielder, are the only recruits to remain on the pay roll. Further cuts may be made before May 1 as Manager Mack has announced that he will carry only twenty-two players, although the league limit is twenty-five.

SHOP AND RAIL ROAD NEWS

MACBETH SUCCEEDS E. A. MILLER

Conneaut Master Mechanic Becomes Superintendent of Motive Power.

Bulletins received here yesterday announced the appointment of H. A. Macbeth general superintendent of motive power of the Nickel Plate, to succeed E. A. Miller, deceased. Mr. Macbeth has been connected with the mechanical department of the Nickel Plate ever since the road was opened to business. When Mr. Miller was promoted, about twelve years ago, to superintendent of motive power to succeed John MacKenzie, Mr. Macbeth was advanced to master mechanic of the Conneaut shops, succeeding Mr. Miller, and now he succeeds that official as motive power superintendent. Never having been connected with the western division of the Nickel Plate, Mr. Macbeth is not generally known among the employes of the road out here.

WILL EXTEND STOCK SALE LIMIT.

Co-operative Store Company Will Keep Books Open to 30th.

Because of a general request it was announced at the meeting of the boosters of the Union Co-operative Department Store company, at Unity hall last evening, that the books of the concern would remain open until and including Friday, April 30, in order that stock may be sold up to that time. Six experienced men have applied for the managership of the company, it was announced last night, and the directors reported that this question, as well as the location of the store, would probably be made public at the meeting next Wednesday night, April 28. A total of $3,880 worth of stock was turned in at the meeting last night. The stock selling contest continues to be vigorously pushed along, with Capt. F. W. Wellemeier, of the western part of the city, slightly in the lead. W. J. McCarthy, who is the captain of the east side boosters, is not discouraged, however, and may come in ahead in the wind up. The losers have to pay the cost of a banquet for both sides.

FRED WALTERS IN RACE.

Will Be Candidate for Relief Committeeman on Pennsy.

I. Fred Walters, who has had the matter under consideration for several days, decided yesterday that he would enter the race for a member of the advisory board of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association for the Western division. Mr. Walters has had charge of the Clinton street entrance to the shops for several years and is known to all of the shopmen and many of the employes in other departments. Before taking his present position, he was employed in the train service and yard service. So far now there are three candidates in the field—Dispatcher Samuel M. Taylor, the present committeeman; Orville Itwin, of Chicago, a passenger conductor who filled the office two terms several years ago, and Mr. Walters. Last year there were four candidates and the preceding year there were five.

MADE LIBRARY NICE PRESENT.

E. A. Barnes Sends to Its Shelves 28 Valuable Books.

E. A. Barnes, factory superintendent of the Fort Wayne Electric works, has donated twenty-eight volumes of the proceedings of the American Institute of Electric Engineers. These books are valuable for reference purposes, as they contain information upon important matters that cannot be obtained elsewhere.

WRIGHT TO GIVE LECTURE.

Will Be Principal Speaker at Meeting of Electrical Engineers.

W. O. Wright, assistant engineer of the western division of the Pennsylvania Railway company, will be the principal speaker Thursday evening at the regular meeting of the Fort Wayne branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers to be held in the office of the Fort Wayne Electric works on Columbia street. He will speak on the subject of electric welding. His lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides.

GOT THE WRONG PACKAGE.

Engineer Arthur Crasper, of the Nickel Plate, knows all about a locomotive, but as a plasterer's attendant he is not so much of a success. Recently he discovered his cistern empty and an investigation revealed a crack in the wall through which the water escaped. Thinking to patch the break, he lowered his son in the cistern and then went into the house and got what he supposed was a sack of plaster of paris. It didn't "mix" good, and calling a neighbor to his assistance, the latter discovered that instead of plaster of paris, Mr. Crapser had gotten hold of his wife's granulated sugar. "Don't tell anybody," was his remark to the neighbor as he started for the grocery to get another sack of sugar so Mrs. Crapser would not miss that which he had used. A brick mason was summoned and in a few minutes the cistern was "water proof."

GETS A BETTER RUN.

Charles F. Somers, the engineer on Pennsylvania trains 19 and 18 between this city and Chicago, has been transferred to a run on Nos. 18 and 17 between Fort Wayne and Crestline which is regarded a much better run than he formerly had because it is made in daylight, while the other was partly by night. Mr. Somers succeeds Engineer J. C. McCarthy, who has been sick and unable to work for three or four months.

TWO DISGUSTED FISHERMEN.

M. O. Brown and William Hyre, of the Nickel Plate, than whom no more enthusiastic and hard working fishermen ever existed, laid off yesterday and went to Pleasant Lake with great expectations. Soon after reaching the lake the winds arose and blew a gale that made it impossible for fishermen to stay on the water and they came home empty handed and greatly disgusted.

WILL ENGAGE IN BUSINESS.

A. Sionkiewicz, for a year or two employed as a helper in the Pennsylvania boiler shop, resigned this morning. He has made arrangements to engage in the grocery business in the eastern part of the city. This is the second man of foreign birth to resign this spring at the Pennsylvania boiler shop to engage in business. Both worked hard and steady and saved a good portion of their earnings.

WILL MOVE TO FLORIDA.

Joseph Grothaus, for many years employed as a blacksmith at the Pennsylvania shops and later at the round house, has resigned and will soon leave the city. Mr. Grothaus owns some valuable fruit and grain lands in Florida and he will move onto them soon, expecting to reside there permanently.

MRS. MATOTT WILL ENTERTAIN.

Mrs. C. T. Matott will be hostess tomorrow afternoon to Kekionga Aid society, Ladies' Auxiliary to the O. R. C., at her pleasant home, 242 East Woodland avenue. Mesdames Taylor and Caskey will assist Mrs. Matott in entertaining the society.

MACHINIST LOSES A THUMB.

Machinist Charles Johnson, of the Fort Wayne Electric works, lost a portion of his right thumb yesterday, when the digit was caught in the boring mill he was operating. Mr. Johnson was sent to St. Joseph hospital after the injured thumb was dressed by Dr. Fred Schulz, the company's surgeon.

EACH HAD FOOT INJURED.

Julius F. Doriot and Karl Braun, the former an apprentice and the latter a machinist, were injured in an almost identical manner yesterday and will be unable to work for a week or ten days. Each had a foot painfully hurt.

CALLED TO MOTHER'S BEDSIDE.

A message from Columbia City this morning called A. M. McClain, an electric welder at the Pennsylvania, to the bedside of his mother. She is very sick.

GONE TO OLD HOME TO VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Maurer have gone to their former home in Illinois to spend a week or ten days with relatives. Mr. Maurer is a Nickel Plate engineer.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

This was the semi-monthly pay day at the Fort Wayne Electric works.

Mark Heath, a Nickel Plate brakeman, is on duty again after a few days' absence.

E. O. Wagner, commercial agent of the G. R. & I., is looking after business at Richmond today.

William Kroener, jr., a clerk at the Lake Shore freight office, went to Reading, Mich, yesterday.

Firemen George Swartz, of the Nickel Plate, is taking a lay off to attend to some private business.

Assistant Foreman Fred Weideman, of the Bowser machine shop, has been sick and off duty a few days.

M. S. Hill, gang foreman of the Pennsylvania boiler shop, who had been sick several days, is working again.

Nickel Plate Brakeman R. G. Welch and J. W. Smith are taking a lay off to look after some private business.

Elmer Wiedke and H. F. Telley, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, will spend Saturday and Sunday in Chicago.

Pennsylvania Machinist A. M. Ringle was taken sick while operating his machine this morning. He had to go home.

Treasurer C. A. Dunkelberg, of S. F. Bowser & Company, has been transacting business in Chicago for a day or two.

A. S. Courtney is in Allegheny and Pittsburg this week attending to some special work for the Pennsylvania this week.

A. J. Cook, [illegible] at the Pennsylvania round house tomorrow.

Claim Agent Burkett, of the Nickel Plate, headquarters in Cleveland, is here today on business for the claims department.

Machinist James L. Ryan is on the job again at the Pennsylvania shops after an absence on account of an injured eye.

Master Mechanic G. W. Smith is in Toledo, and Division Storekeeper E. L. Ensel is in St. Thomas on business for the Wabash.

G. F. Belschner, of the Pennsylvania boiler shop, is off duty on account of an ulcerated tooth, which has caused his face to swell badly.

Brakeman G. E. Deahl, who had been off duty on account of the death of a relative three or four days, resumed work this morning.

Brakeman N. A. Perry, who had been engaged for a week in doing some work at his home, resumed his duties on the Nickel Plate today.

R. J. Sorg, a Pennsylvania tank repairman, is sick and off duty. J. T. Holle is also absent from the boiler shop on account of sickness.

D. T. McFee, Nickel Plate engineer, reported for duty today. He had been off to attend the funeral of Joseph Wood, who was his boyhood friend.

Mrs. H. F. Knake and daughter are enroute to Philadelphia to see her sister, who is said to be very sick. Mr. Knake is employed at the Wabash shops.

E. T. Whiter, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania Northwest system, who had been in Chicago on business, passed through the city on train No. 8 enroute to Pittsburg.

W. B. Stanford, of Philadelphia, is in the city to consult the management at S. F. Bowser and Company's plant on matters of business. Mr. Stanford is a salesman for the company.

After a successful surgical operation at the Lutheran hospital, Arnold Meyers a coremaker at the foundry of the Western Gas Construction company, is rapidly recovering at his home.

When Brakeman A. A. Brandon, of the Nickel Plate, arrived home yesterday after a trip over the division, he found Mrs. Brandon very ill. He has taken a lay off on that account.

Maurice O'Connell, a bill clerk in the American Express office at Hammond, Ind., has returned to that city, after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis O'Connell, of 1720 High street.

E. J. McCruden, lumber inspector and timber buyer for the Nickel Plate, has completed the purchase of a lot of piling for use in the extensive improvements that are now being made at Chicago.

Fireman Meyers, who left here yesterday with the southbound freight train No. 93, fell from the running board of his engine and sustained injuries to his side which necessitated giving up work at Montpelier, where a fireman relieved him.

Detective J. Mulvihill, of the Wabash, will endeavor to prevent the stealing coal from the cars of the company which stand for awhile at Winter street. He says the loss has been considerable and much complaint made against the practice of the fuel robbers.

Conductor W. C. Flouring, who had the ligaments of one of his legs torn ten days ago, was able to report for duty this morning on the Nickel Plate. Conductor D. M. Kime also resumed work on the road this morning, after a rheumatic attack which disabled him ten days.

Switchman Thomas Hayes, of the Nickel Plate, came home from Rome City Sunday evening with forty-two bass, weighing from two pounds to five pounds each. They were caught in three days and made the prettiest string ever taken out of those waters by one man.

Prof. S. H. Welty, of the LaOtto high school, and twelve of the students visited the power plant of the traction company, the city pumping station and the Fort Wayne high school, where they were given a demonstration in wireless telegraphy by Professor Carter. The party made the trip here in automobiles.

The Peru wreck crew, which was called here yesterday morning to pick up switch engine 433, which went off the rails at Thompson avenue at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning and came very near tumbling down the elevation, did not complete its work until nearly 6 o'clock last night. Fortunately the engine did not turn over and Engineer Voss and Fireman Golden were able to get out of the cab without being injured.

After a very unpleasant experience, Nickel Plate Engineer William Stellhorn now considers himself an expert with a motorcycle. He thought he knew something about one the other day, but a trip to New Haven on the machine of Operator C. A. Donast disabused that idea. He reached New Haven all right, but could not get the machine started for home until he had squandered three hours in the effort and then got some boys to do it for him.

For Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Here in America there is much suffering from catarrh and head noises. American people would do well to consider the method employed by the English to combat this insidious disease. Everyone knows how damp the English climate is and how dampness affects those suffering from catarrh. In England they treat catarrhal deafness and head noises as a constitutional disease and use an internal remedy for it that is really very efficacious.

Sufferers who could scarcely hear a watch tick tell how they had their hearing restored by this English treatment to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven and eight inches away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be easily prepared at home for about 75c and is made as follows:

From your druggist obtain 1 oz. of Parmint (Double Strength), about 75c worth. Take this home, and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stirr until dissolved. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are usually remarkably quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form should give this recipe a trial and free themselves from this destructive disease.—Adv.

The Promise of A Better Tire Day

Goodyear Fortified Tires came, years ago, to promise men a better tire day. And that promise was fulfilled.

They made Goodyear the largest-selling tire in the world, a place it has held ever since. Last year men bought 1,479,883—about one for each car in use.

Not Magical

Don't expect in the Goodyear a magical tire. It is not exempt from mishap and misuse.

It won top place because it averaged best. It did that because, in five great ways, it excels every other tire. It combats in five ways, exclusive to Goodyears, these six major troubles—

Rim-Cuts	Insecurity
Blowouts	Punctures
Loose Treads	Skidding

One way—our "On-Air" cure—costs us $450,000 yearly. One comes through forming in each tire hundreds of large rubber rivets. One compels us to vulcanize in each tire base 126 braided piano wires.

One comes through our double-thick All-Weather tread, with its sharp, tough, resistless grips. These things together mean a super-tire.

Lower Prices

Yet these costly-built tires, in the past two years, have been thrice reduced in price. Our last reduction—on February 1st—brings the two-year total to 45%.

Never has a tire given so much for the money as Fortified Tires do now. We ask you, for your own sake, to prove it. Any dealer will supply you.

AUBURN NEWS.

Auburn, Ind., April 22.—The Campbell blacksmith shop has been sold to Arthur Slentz, who took charge at once.

Miss Arno McConnell was called to Montpelier, Ohio, Tuesday by the death of Mrs. Earl Harman. Neither the arrangements nor the cause of the death were named in the bref message.

Miss Hilda Metcalf has returned to high school after a week's illness, caused by mumps.

H. H. Corsan, the world's greatest swimming instructor, is in the city this week under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Henry Gauli, of South Van Buren, purchased the Treesh property in the public sale held at the court house door, and will move into it at once.

A case has been venued here from Allen county in which $10,000 is asked as damages by Arthur Swain from the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company. He was employed by them and while going to work, he broke a knee, for which he wants recompense.

Thomas Bryant, of Troy township, was taken to Elkhart, where he was entered in a hospital there. He is getting along nicely.

Mrs. W. C. McNabb entered the Lutheran hospital in Fort Wayne last Saturday, where she will be treated. She has been ill for a year and it is hoped that she will receive benefit from the services.

George Boland and wife, of Kokomo, spent the fore part of the week with Mr. and Mrs. M. Boland.

Mrs. Jos. Stafford has left for a visit in Indianapolis, where she will care for her brother, Nicholas Ensley, who is in poor health. Mr. Ensley is the owner of the famous Ensley farm between Fort Wayne and Garrett.

TU-BO-LAX

Keeps us well

TU-BO-LAX CORRECTS CONSTIPATION

Corrects CONSTIPATION in 2 MINUTES

Adrienne, the Editor of "Health & Beauty" page in The Philadelphia Inquirer, gives Mothers this very sensible advice:

"Try to do without drugs, I say this, not from any dislike to the use of medicines in treating children, but because we are here dealing with a function that persists throughout life. If we control the function by drugs we injure the intestines in their action, so that larger and larger doses must be taken, and in the course of time nothing short of giant doses of the most powerful purgatives will effect the result desired, and as such drugs when habitually used injure the system—the condition of the sufferer is pitiable."

Had she written a whole volume she could not have said more. Only she might have added—that where children or grown folks are constipated they should—by all means, be treated with TU-BO-LAX. This laxative ointment, which is inserted in the rectum, brings immediate relief without disturbing the stomach, intestines or any part of the body, and soon habituates the lower bowel to act regularly without assistance. Treating Constipation through the mouth in any shape will soon be tabooed by the Medical Profession. We want everybody to realize the fact that the lower bowel is nothing more or less than a sewer pipe, and when it becomes clogged or fails to evacuate the refuse matter—it upsets digestion, creating dyspepsia, nervousness, liver ailments, sick headache and general debility.

If you are constipated—try TU-BO-LAX, and in 2 MINUTES you will be grateful for this advice. You will have no more use for Cathartics. TU-BO-LAX is as pleasant and easily used as taking a swallow of water. It gives you one complete evacuation, and avoids the weakening effect of Cathartics that may operate a half dozen times, just when it is most inconvenient.

All druggists sell it—or upon receipt of 25 cents we will mail you a package.

Large Tube (Contains 5 times amount of 25c size) 50 cents.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, April 22.—Rains tending to relieve drought condition east of the Mississippi more than offset in the wheat market today the effect of bullish cables. After opening unchanged to 1⅝c higher, the market scored a little further gain, and then receded to below last night's level.

Corn gave way with wheat. The opening here, which varied from a shade off to ½c advance, was followed by a moderate setback all around.

Oats weakened as a result of the plentiful moisture supply.

Steadiness characterized the provision trade.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, April 22.—With few exceptions leading stocks were lower almost to the point of heaviness at the outset of today's operations. U. S. Steel, Union Pacific, Amalgamated Copper and other issues which form the bulk of each session's business declined from material fractions to a point. R. Island and Southwestern Railway shares added to yesterday's losses and Bethlehem Steel also went a point lower. The only feature of pronounced strength was the tobacco issues, which gained from three to sixteen points. Trading lacked the furious activity of recent openings, all offerings being in moderate amounts.

For the first time in over a fortnight business in the early session held within normal bounds. Standard shares made some recovery from opening declines, but coppers were the conspicuous feature, Amalgamated, Utah, Inspiration and others of that group going above yesterday's high quotations. Steel continued under pressure but a number of industrials and equipments rose two to five points. Further additions were made to gains in tobaccos which seemed to be based primarily on sentimental considerations. Railways of the higher class were almost neglected but towards midday Union Pacific and Reading rose on renewed inquiry. Bonds were firm.

Lowest prices were made in the last hour, principal issues then showing losses of one to almost two points. The closing was irregular.

Zollars Park is an addition bounded by Wildwood, Kinnaird, Indiana and Beaver Avenues.

Five years ago, in 1910, lots in that addition sold for $500.

Today they are worth $1,500.

The growth of Fort Wayne, especially strong southwards, has brought about this phenomenal increase in values.

The southward trend of Fort Wayne, now stronger than ever, will work a corresponding increase in the values of all lots in that direction.

MUSTN'T LIVE WITH HUSBAND FOR YEAR

Chicago Heiress Bride is Up Against Parental Interdiction.

Denver, Col., April 22.—Cards announcing the wedding of Miss Louise Besly, the beautiful 19 year old Chicago heiress, to Thomas Wesley Osborne, of Denver, will be issued this week, but Mrs. Osborne will be immediately taken back to her home in Hinsdale, Ill., with her mother, and a probationary wait of a year will be imposed on the newly weds before the young couple will be allowed to live together. The bride is reported to be worth $150,000 in her own right and will inherit nearly a million dollars more.

This is the mandate issued by Mrs. Charles Howard Besly, of Hinsdale, a Chicago suburb, mother of the bride and wife of the late C. H. Besly, of the Besly Machinery and Manufacturing company, of Chicago, who is in Denver, following the announcement of the marriage.

According to relatives of Mrs. Besly she returned to Denver with her daughter in order that arrangements for an annulment of the marriage might be agreed upon between herself and the parents of the bridegroom, but all steps in that direction failing, the announcement of the wedding will be made, followed by the hasty removal of the bride to her former home.

HETTRICK FOUND GUILTY.

Toledo Jury Convicts of Second Degree Murder in Case of Fort Wayne Man.

Toledo, Ohio, April 22.—After deliberating forty minutes a jury in the court of common pleas here returned a verdict finding Al Tettrick, of Fort Wayne, guilty of murder in the second degree for the killing of Mrs. Carrie Jones Barlow, his mistress, in this city, the 27th of last January. Hettrick did not deny the killing, but made the plea that he was so intoxicated at the time that he did not know what he was doing. The tragedy was the outgrowth of a quarrel Hettrick had with the woman for the possession of some rings of which he claimed ownership.

Al Hettrick and Mrs. Barlow resided in Fort Wayne at a hotel near the south railroads for several months and passed themselves as a married couple. He is said to have been a railroad man and to have been of sober habits until he discovered the woman was keeping the company of other men and was going automobile riding and drinking in wine rooms with them. Then Hettrick began drinking heavily and quarreled with her. They went from here to Toledo a short time before the tragedy that resulted in the murder of Mrs. Barlow.

PLEADS GUILTY TO BURGLARY CHARGE

Frank Wheeler, Caught at His Work, Makes No Defense.

Frank Wheeler, aged 23, who was caught red-handed committing burglary in the offices of the Horton Manufacturing company, in the western part of the city, at 9 o'clock Wednesday night, was arraigned in the city court Thursday morning, on a burglary charge and entered a plea of guilty. His bond was fixed at $1,000 and he went to jail. Wheeler's arrest was brought about by William Hall, the bookkeeper, who lives opposite the factory, and who had seen a light above his own desk. He suspected that something was wrong and telephoned the police. The patrol wagon with Night Stationmaster Fred Fry, Patrolman John Godfrey and Driver Gus Buuck made a hurried run and found Wheeler rifling drawers in the desk as Mr. Hall softly turned the key in the office door. Wheeler, who was in his stocking feet, heard the click of the lock and ran from the desk through a short hallway to reach an open window through which he had gained entrance, but a shot from Officer Fry's revolver planted a bullet near his feet and he stopped. Wheeler told the officers at headquarters that he is a French-Indian native of New York, with his home in Ogdensburg. He confesses to a criminal record, having been released from the Elmira, N. Y., penitentiary April 8, coming directly to Fort Wayne.

Bicycle Thief is Held.

Grant Lochindar, charged with grand larceny, was bound over to the circuit court and in default of bond of $1,000 went to jail. He stole a new bicycle, valued at $35, from Edgar Burger, a boy who resides in the country. When taken before Chief Lenz the thief put on a bold front and put on an exhibition of nerve that astonished the chief. He denied that a photograph of himself was a picture of him, said his name was Herschell Dunn and his residence at 1857 East Thirtieth street, South Lorain, Ohio, and that he had a brother in Lorain who is a lawyer.

"You can find out about me in twenty minutes by telephone and there is the money to pay the charges," said Lochindar, as he slapped a couple of silver dollars on the chief's desk.

Lochindar admits that he has been stealing bicycles, having taken one at Lima, Ohio, which he sold in Delphos, and another at Findlay, which he sold to a man in the country. He came to Fort Wayne and a week ago stole young Burger's wheel. He was arrested by Sergeant Detective Peter Junk, who had been detailed on the case.

Other City Court Cases.

Tom Murray, a vag, who had been hanging about all day Wednesday at Peter Tanis' saloon, Penn and Wallace streets, where the city emergency was pulled off at noon [illegible] was found guilty and fined [illegible] to leave the city and all of them promised to make a prompt getaway.

Melvin Kaylor, arrested on a charge of neglecting his children, was continued until Friday morning under $100 bond.

HAS A POLICE RECORD.

Frank Penninger, the young man who was arrested as a suspicious character and held on a loitering charge, denied to Detective Sergeants Spillner and Junk, who pinched him, that he had ever done anything wrong, has been found to have an extensive record in Toledo as a criminal. He is believed to know something about the street car hold-up in the east end of the city a week ago and to have been concerned in the attempt to burglarize the George Abdon saloon on Winter street a few nights since.

WRECK AND FIRE PERIL INSANE AT LOGANSPORT ASYLUM

Two Explosions and Resulting Fires in Quick Succession Cause Loss of $25,000 at Longcliffe

Logansport, Ind., April 22.—As Juanita Owens, an attendant, lighted a coal oil stove early today, an explosion followed which destroyed two infirmary wards at the Northern Hospital for the Insane near this city.

Of the 91 patients in the building, seventy-five were helpless or bedridden but by prompt action of the employes of the institution all were taken out uninjured.

Another Breaks Out.

Soon after the first fire was under control, another fire broke out in the elevator shaft of the building and a dust explosion followed.

The fire companies from Logansport were summoned and rendered assistance in extinguishing the flames, which had got beyond the control of the hospital fire fighters.

Roof Falls In.

The roof of the building fell in, but the walls are still standing. The loss is estimated at $25,000. There is no insurance as the state does not carry policies.

The building was erected in 1900. Superintendent Terflinger has called a meeting of the trustees for today, and work on rebuilding will begin at once.

Berlin Newspapers Sharply Criticize Address by Wilson.

Amsterdam, April 22.—Commenting on the address of President Wilson at the luncheon of the Associated Press in New York April 20, the Vossiche Zeitung of Berlin, speaks as follows:

"We could believe in the inclination of the United States after the war to play the role to which President Wilson refers, namely 'to prepare assistance for both belligerent parties,' if Americans during the war had acted in accordance with the principle of assistance to neither side. The purveyors of arms and ammunition to adversaries, cannot all of a sudden, pretend to be the impartial friend of all belligerents in the negotiations at the conclusion of the war."

The Lokal Anzeiger says: "President Wilson is mightily mistaken if he imagines his sort of neutrality will be acknowledged by the belligerents as fair play. It is impossible for Germany and her allies to esteem as a sign of 'self control' one sided patronage by the continued toleration of a most extensive supply of arms, combined with humble endurance of all English oppression of neutral commerce. So far as Germany is concerned, President Wilson need not trouble about preparations for help after the war."

The ideas expressed by President Wilson and referred to in their comment, these two German newspapers doubtless found in the following paragraph:

"Let us think of America before we think of Europe, in order that America may be fit to be Europe's friend when the day of tested friendship comes. The test of friendship is not now sympathy with the one side or the other, but getting ready to help both sides when the struggle is over."

ANOTHER LIGHT POST DAMAGED.

FIVE INDICTED FOR FAIR FUNDS MISUSE

Albany, N. Y., April 22.—Mayor John R. Earl, Postmaster R. Nathaniel Roberts, Ellis Crosby, J. Milton Woodward and Dr. Anderson Crawforth, all of Lockport, have been indicted on charges growing out of the alleged misuse of funds of the Niagara county fair, which was brought to light by a recent investigation.

Announcement of the return of the indictments was made today by Attorney General Woodbury. It is charged that for several years the indicted men were connected with a scheme to divert moneys intended for legitimate exhibitors at the county fair to "dummy" exhibitors, some of them dead men, for "exhibits."

An allowance of $4,000 was made to the Niagara County Agricultural society last year. A large part of this allowance was paid out on fraudulent vouchers, it is said. All the indicted men were officers or directors of the agricultural society.

DAUGHTER DIES AS SHE ATTEMPTS CRIME

Muskegon, Mich., April 22.—Admission that her thirteen year old stepdaughter, Evelyn, whose nude body was found in an alley in the rear of her home this morning, died at 9 o'clock yesterday morning while she was attempting to perform a criminal operation upon her, was made at noon today by Mrs. Albert Steel to Coroner James F. Balbirnie.

The coroner announced that Mrs. Steele confessed after she had been questioned for nearly an hour.

RECEIVER FOR REMNANTS.

Edward W. Pierson Named in Indianapolis Fed League Case.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—Edward W. Pierson, a real estate dealer, was appointed receiver for the Indianapolis club of the Federal league, left behind when the team was transferred to Newark, N. J., by Jno J. Rockeford in the superior court here today. His bond was fixed at $5,000 and he will take charge at once of the ball park here and its fixtures. The receiver was appointed on the petition of Louis Lewis, caretaker, and two stockholders.

Dead Are Taken from Birminghan Wreckage

Birmingham, Ala., April 22.—Searchers continuing today their work among the ruins of the two retail stores here demolished late yesterday by a falling wall, declared the death list would reach at least twelve. Five bodies have been recovered and seven other persons believed to have been in the crowded buildings when the crash occurred were reported missing.

More than a score were suffering from more or less serious injuries. The wall, five stories high, was weakened by a recent fire and toppled over during a wind storm. The two stores, occupied by the Atlantic and Pacific Tea company and the Hann Shoe company, were completely wrecked.

The debris is so thick that twenty-four hours may be required to recover all the bodies and determine the exact number of victims.

Among the known missing are J. H. Whitlock, traveling auditor of the tea company, and Miss Melia Eddinger, Miss Medeline Dedman and Irving Melbrant of the shoe store.

Three bodies were recovered from the ruins just before midnight, but they were so badly crushed that they were not identified.

Both stores were crowded when the old wall, left standing after a recent fire, crashed to the roofs of the adjoining buildings. Three stories in height, they crumpled under the weight of the falling brick, and many of the shoppers and employes in the stores were trapped.

Rescue squads quickly were organized and when flames broke out in the shoe store they were checked without impeding efforts to reach the imprisoned persons. Eleven injured were removed in the first attack on the debris, and hundreds of men spurred by cries for help worked to rescue others or recover their bodies.

Five of the injured were said today to be in a serious condition. Official investigation of the accident has been ordered.

WHERE WRECKED SAFE WAS FOUND AND NOTE DROPPED BY ROBBERS.

Francis Bulot, engineer for the Wildwood Builders, found the safe carted away by bold robbers from the Peter Tanis home at Lafayette and Wallace streets Wednesday noon in Lafayette place, at the south edge of the city, and notified the police. The engraving shows where the safe was found and the mysterious note dropped by the robbers.

CELEBRATION TO BE HELD EARLY IN JUNE

H. C. Ostermann, Consul for Lincoln Highway, Here to Arrange It.

H. C. Ostermann, consul at large for the Lincoln highway, with headquarters in New York, was in Fort Wayne Thursday to complete arrangements for the taking of moving pictures of scenes along the highway at the time the Lincoln celebration is held here.

Moving pictures of scenes along the thoroughfare will be taken from New York to San Francisco and will be shown in all the principal cities of the country and at the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco. Inasmuch as Fort Wayne is one city out of sixty along the highway in which local scenes will be taken local boosters are anxious to make a good showing.

Ostermann expects to arrive in Fort Wayne with his moving picture operators some time between June 1 and 10. Upon the date of his arrival here the celebration, which was postponed from last fall, will be held.

During his stay in Fort Wayne Thursday Mr. Ostermann was in conference with Van B. Perrine, president of the Commercial club, and Martin Luecke, president of the Rotary club, who are back of the celebration. At Mr. Ostermann's suggestion an industrial parade will probably be given with floats showing the different things that are manufactured in this city. Moving pictures of the parade will be taken.

Governor Samuel M. Ralston has promised to attend the celebration. He will be the principal speaker.

STATE WILL SEEK TO OUST REDMAN

Attorney General Attempts Removal of Convicted Terre Haute Judge.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—State's Attorney General Richard M. Milburn announced today that he would begin steps immediately for the removal of Eli H. Redman as judge of the Vigo county circuit court. Redman, with Mayor Donn M. Roberts and twenty-six others, was convicted here in the federal court in the Terre Haute election conspiracy case and was taken last Sunday to the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., to where he was sentenced to serve five years and pay a fine of $1,000 by Judge A. B. Anderson.

Redman was declared elected judge of the Vigo court by ten votes over Charles Pulliam, the republican candidate, in the election last November. During the trial in the federal court it was brought out that at least 560 illegal votes were cast for the democratic ticket. It was also testified that one precinct in the red light district held back its returns for more than an hour so a hundred or more votes could be added to the totals in case Redman did not have enough votes to insure his election.

DAYLIGHT ROBBERS RETURNED TO CITY

Men Who Carried Off Tanis Safe Believed to Have Lay-Up Here.

That the two men who carried away the safe belonging to Peter Tanis, a saloonkeeper at John and Wallace streets, shortly after noon Wednesday, and rifled it of cash and checks amounting to $1,500 did not leave the city is the belief of the police. The theory of the police is that after opening the safe and getting its contents at Lafayette Place, in the far south part of the city, the men jumped into their wagon and circled back into the city and sought a hiding place. That by this time they have gone is probable. No trace of the men or the rig in which they hauled Tanis' safe from the saloonist's room was found in the country, either by the police or Sheriff A. C. Gladieux's men.

Took Plenty of Chances.

The boldness of the job grows as further details are learned. The two men were heard at work battering away with sledge and chisel by several persons, including Saloonkeeper Tanis himself, and his brother John, the man who obligingly assisted the robbers to lift the safe into the wagon after they had dragged it downstairs from Pete's room, where they had failed to get it open.

Pete Tanis says he heard the noise of the robbers as they worked, but thought it was made by the woman who keeps a rooming-house upstairs as she worked away at her washing. John Tanis heard and thought it was Pete doing something. He still thought so when the men hauled the safe downstairs and said:

"Here, John, help to get this into the wagon; we're taking it away to have it fixed for Pete."

"Sure, I will," said John, and he lent a hand and heaved with a right good will.

Goes for Drink; Tells of Safe.

John Tanis washes dishes and does other scullery work about the boarding house and after he had aided the cracksmen he went back to his dishcloths and crockery. He worked for some minutes, discovered himself to be the victim of thirst and with a small bucket of the "growler" bread, went to Pete's saloon to have it filled.

He got a drink, had his bucket filled and then casually remarked to Brother Pete:

"What's the matter with your safe?

RAILROAD FIREMAN'S LIFE A CHARMED ONE.

Connellsville, Pa., April 22.—William E. Stewart, a Baltimore and Ohio railroad locomotive fireman believes he possesses a charmed life. Tuesday night, Stewart was struck by lighting at his home here and rendered unconscious for four hours. He recovered, however, and feels no ill effects. Recently he was hurled from an engine when it blew up but escaped with only a few bruises. Stewart says he has had seven narrow escapes from death.

STRIKE FOES NEARER HOME

BLOW IS ATTEMPTED AT BIG NAVAL BASE

Today's War News Given in Summary.

The German admiralty announced today that a British submarine was sunk five days ago in Helgoland bay, which lies between the mainland and the island of Helgoland, one of the most important German naval stations. It is said British submarines have been observed and attacked repeatedly in this bay and that others probably have been destroyed.

In Petrograd it is asserted that attacks of Austrian forces on the Russians who invaded northern Hungary have failed. The Austrians attempted outflanking movements along the section of the Carpathian line, where the Russians succeeded in reaching the Hungarian plains, but according to information from Petrograd they were put to rout, with large losses.

In France and Belgium yesterday there was a continuance of the minor operations such as have been under way of late. Small successes are claimed by the Germans, but the French communication gives no new details.

A Geneva dispatch says Austrian and German subjects in Switzerland have been recalled to their respective countries. It is also reported that the Italian government has requisitioned all Italian vessels engaged in trade with the United States.

Berlin, April 22.—The German admiralty today gave out a statement saying that in a certain German bay of the North Sea British submarines have been repeatedly observed recently, and attacked by German forces. Such a hostile submarine was sent to the bottom April 17 and the destruction of other such vessels is considered probable.

The admiralty statement specifies Helgoland bay as the scene of the appearance of the British submarines. This bay lies between the mainland and the island of Helgoland, one of the most important German naval stations.

German army headquarters today gave out a report on the progress of hostilities reading: "In the western arena, south of LaBassee canal and to the northwest of Arras, we undertook several successful mining operations.

"In the Argonne and in the region between the Meuse and the Moselle yesterday saw fierce artillery engagements. After a surprise artillery attack, French forces last night advanced in the western part of the wood of LePretre, but they were repulsed with heavy losses.

"On the northern border of Hartmans-Weilerkopf we destroyed a point of support of the enemy and in the evening we drove back a French attack.

"In the eastern arena of hostilities the situation shows no change."

ALL SUBJECTS CALLED HOME.

Geneva, April 22.—All German and Austrian subjects in Switzerland, even those who never did military service, were recalled yesterday by their respective governments.

News reached Lugano this morning that the Italian government had stopped the trans-Atlantic service with the United States. Passengers who had purchased tickets have had their money returned to them. The Italian government, the report says, requires all the steamships.

NOTHING NEW SAYS PARIS.

Paris, April 22.—The official report on the progress of hostilities given out by the French war office this afternoon contains nothing additional to what was in the announcement made public last night.

Twenty-nine more French generals have been placed either on the reserve or retired lists to make way for younger or more active men. The official Journal contains names of eleven generals of divisions and eighteen generals of brigades who have been relieved from active service.

DUTCH STEAMER IS HALTED.

Stockholm, April 22.—A German submarine today stopped a Dutch steamer outside of Gefle on the gulf of Bothnia and examined her papers and cargo.

From this incident the deduction is made here that Germany in this manner intends to keep a close watch on the traffic between Sweden and Finland.

Matter of New School in Washington Township is Now Up to Him.

After hearing arguments of attorneys in the controversy arising over the proposed erection of a new school building in Washington township, Thursday morning, Superintendent D. O. McComb declared he would want a day or two to think the matter over. He expects to give a decision Saturday.

Trustee Leonard Stolte and members of his advisory board some weeks ago announced that they intended to erect a new school building of four or six rooms, abolishing a number of the smaller schools in that section of the township. An architect was engaged, who has estimated that to erect a four room building it would cost $20,000, while a six room building would cost $25,000. A remonstrance was circulated and 394 signatures were secured. The petition was presented to Trustee Stolte who turned it down. An appeal was then taken to the county superintendent and upon his decision depends whether the building as proposed by Trustee Stolte will be erected.

The evidence was taken before the superintendent Monday afternoon and the arguments were made Thursday morning. One of the principal arguments presented by attorneys representing the trustee in favor of the proposed school was a statement from the superintendent of the Fort Wayne schools showing that 111 children from Washington township were enrolled in the city schools this year, representing an expenditure of over $2,000 in payment of transfers.

NEAR THE CLOSE OF CONVOCATION

The semi-annual convocation of Scottish Rite Masons in the valley of Fort Wayne will come to a close Thursday evening with the conferring of the thirty-second degree upon a class of candidates numbering about fifty. The convocation has been under way since Tuesday.

Hon. James E. Watson, of Rushville, member of the Indianapolis consistory, delivered the principal address at the banquet Wednesday evening. Judge David E. Smith, of Decatur, delivered the address to the class, and Raleigh C. Parrish, also of Decatur, made the response for the class. Music during the banquet was furnished by the Schlatter orchestra and a male quartet.

The twentieth degree of Scottish Rite Masonry was exemplified late Wednesday afternoon by a degree staff from South Bend, all members of which belong to the Fort Wayne consistory.

HASN'T YET MADE UP MIND IN THAW CASE

New York, April 22.—The question as to whether Harry K. Thaw is entitled to have a jury to determine his sanity remained undecided today in the mind of Supreme Court Justice Hendrick.

When attorneys for Thaw and the state of New York appeared in court to hear his decision, Justice Hendrick announced that he had not time to complete his study of the authorities, but hoped to be able to render his decision tomorrow.

The proceedings, which are based upon a writ of habeas corpus were adjourned until that time.

PASTORS WILL MAKE TRANSFER AFTER ALL

Columbus, Ind., April 22.—Rev. Wirt Lowther, pastor of the First M. E. church here, has been transferred to the Broadway M. E. church at Logansport and Rev. J. A. Sumwalt, pastor of the Logansport church, will come to this city, it was announced here today.

Dr. Lowther some time ago created a sensation by announcing from his pulpit that scandal was being circulated concerning his daughter, Miss Mamine, and demanded a church investigation. It was found there was no truth in the stories but who started them could not be learned. Mr. Lowther asked for his release and arrangements for the transfer were made.

Last Sunday, the local minister announced that he would remain in Columbus, but meetings between committees of the Logansport and Columbus churches held in Indianapolis, resulted in a renewal of the agreement for the transfer. The two pastors will preach their first sermons in their new charges next Sunday.

MEETING POSTPONED.

The meeting of the Washington township Farmers' club scheduled for Saturday evening, April 24, has been postponed to the evening of May 8 at the Butler school.

Roosevelt Made Affidavit He Lived in Washington Before Election.

New Angle in Libel Suit Cross-Examination of the Ex-President.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 22.—During the first part of his cross-examination of Theodore Roosevelt today Wm. Ivins, chief counsel of William Barnes, brought from the former president the statement that he knew the constitution of the state of New York provides that no man is eligible to the office of governor unless he has been a resident of the state for five years prior to the date of his election, and that he had made an affidavit the year previous to his own election that he was and had for some time been a resident of Washington.

Col. Roosevelt's counsel made no objection whatever to the line of questioning which resulted in these statements.

Mr. Ivins sitting or standing directly in front of the witness chair, questioned the colonel in a voice that was scarcely audible to spectators in the rear of the court room. Several times the witness started to make explanatory statements but he was interrupted by the cross examiner and informed that answers, not explanations were desired. The colonel replied to his questioner with great deliberateness, choosing his words carefully.

MASS OF DOCUMENTS.

Confronts Roosevelt in Third Day on Witness Stand.

Syracuse, N. Y., April 22.—Three bundles of paper containing notes and two suit cases of records and pamphlets were taken into the supreme court here today by counsel for William Barnes. The documents were to be used by William Ivins, chief counsel, in his cross examination of Theodore Roosevelt.

Mr. Barnes himself was said to have suggested many questions for his opponent to answer. William Loeb, jr., private secretary to Col. Roosevelt when he was president and later collector of the port of New York, was an early arrival at the court house today. Mr. Loeb is under subpoena and it was considered probable that he would be the next witness for the defense after the cross examination of the colonel was concluded.

There was some delay in opening court today because of a conference between attorneys and Justice Andrews in the latter's chambers. When the conference was over court was opened. A copy of the report of the Bayne committee, which investigated Albany county affairs, was introduced.

Excerpts Are Read.

Excerpts from the report were then read. The first part had to do with gambling, disorderly houses and the payment of money to various officials for doing various things. The report of the committee was made in 1911.

Called Barnes Beneficiary.

One excerpt was: "The conscious beneficiary of graft, public extravagance and raiding of the municipal treasury, we find, from the evidence, to be William Barnes, himself, as the owner of the majority of the stock of the Journal company. How much more than the majority of its stock he owned he refused to disclose."

AUSTRIAN-ITALIAN DEADLOCK BROKEN

London, April 22.—The deadlock in the negotiations between Austria and Italy has been broken and hopes of a settlement of the questions at issue without resort to arms have been revived in Rome. It is not known by persons other than those closely concerned what change has taken place to relieve the apparently hopeless situation, but Rome assumes that either Austria or Italy has made some concessions.

Italy has been represented previously as demanding in their entirety the Trente and Isteria districts, as well as the Dalmatian islands in the Aegean, whereas Austria was believed to be willing to yield only a comparatively small part of this territory.

Strong Turkish Army.

A strong Turkish army is preparing to offer resistance to the land forces with which the allies expect to attack the Dardanelles fortifications from the rear. An Athens dispatch says the Turks have entrenched themselves strongly along the coast of the gulf of Saros. It is in this vicinity according to unofficial advices yesterday, that 20,000 British and French troops have landed. Turkish encampments along the coast are being bombarded by warships of the allies.

Losses Run High.

The determination of the German offensive and the high cost to the allies of an advance are shown again in the fighting near Ypres, as when the British took Neuve Chapelle last month. Since the capture of hill No. 60 by the British, the Germans have made an attempt to regain this strategic position. The losses on both sides are believed to run into the thousands. As far as has been disclosed the British have succeeded in retaining the hill.

Petrograd reports that during the last fortnight there has been artillery fighting in northern Russian Poland, near the East Prussian frontier. The Russians are said to have won the advantage. The check to the Russian advance in the Carpathians, ascribed in Berlin to Russian defeats, is said in Petrograd to be due to spring floods, which make maneuvers difficult.

STILL THE STORM CENTER.

Fighting in the Region of Hill No. 60 Most Severe.

London, April 22.—Hill No. 60, dominating an area to the southeast of Ypres, continues to be the storm center of the western front, with the British clinging tenaciously to the ground taken by assault last Saturday. Counter attack after counter attack has been so far successfully repulsed, but the British hold is still disputed by the Germans and the end of the lively and costly fighting is not yet in sight. The British losses have not been announced, but they are estimated at well over 2,000. The Germans are believed to have lost more than 4,000 men.

The French drive in the direction of St. Mihiel is about the only other significant move in the west. The condition of the ground, bith in the east and the west, is now being directly reflected in the local operations. The situation along the entire eastern front is for the moment apparently at a standstill, floods having impeded military activity in the Carpathians to a large extent, while practically nothing has been heard of movements in Poland. On the other hand fine weather has prevailed in the west for some days and, barring a heavy storm, the ground will become harder daily, a condition which should cause increased activity on each side. The British press concedes that the taking of hill No. 60 is largely a local matter, but considers this a step forward and great relief to the town of Ypres, so long under bombardment. The Germans, in possession of this hill, were not only above the town, but they threatened the British lines in the vicinity of St. Eloi. The taking of this hill, therefore, reduces the inconvenience of the Ypres salient; strengthens the British lines to the south; gives an advantageous position for further efforts and renders the German offensive in this quarter difficult.

The Store That Does Things

Aviator's Heroism is Told by Correspondent in French Camp.

Paris, April 22.—A story telling of the heroism of an aviator described as "De M.——" whose father was killed in one of the first engagements of the war, has been sent to the Petit Journal by a correspondent with the northern army.

"De M.——" was sent with a sergeant to bombard a corner of the Belgian coast where the Germans had been showing exceptional activity. They had to pass over a region where Roland Garros accomplished his most sensational exploits and where the Germans had installed a hundred anti-air craft guns. The aeroplane was piloted safely through a storm of shells while the sergeant dropped bombs according to instructions and then turned toward the French lines, rising to a height of 9,000 feet to avoid the hail of shrapnel. Suddenly a German shell smashed the front wheels and hurtled through the machine, severing the aviator's left foot, the aeroplane began to plunge downward but De M.—— gritted his teeth, righted the machine, keeping it headed toward camp. The sergeant, who thought they were done for, supported the pilot with his left arm while with his right he started to pencil a farewell letter to his mother. They still had fifteen miles to fly to reach a place of safety.

"Shall I take the helm?" asked the sergeant.

"No, no, you trust to me. We'll get back to France all right," was De M's reply. The sergeant then abandoned his letter writing and supported the pilot with both arms. De M.—— stuck to his task and took the machine safely back to the starting place and crawled out unaided through the hole made by the German projectile. Not until he reached the hospital at Zuydcote did he faint.

DR. JAMES H. FORD DEAD.

Indianapolis, April 22.—Dr. James H. Ford, 67, prominent in Indiana medical circles, died at his home here yesterday. Dr. Ford was chief surgeon for the Big Four railroad company at the time of his death and had been president of the Indiana State Medical society and the International Association of Railway Surgeons. He was an employe of the Big Four railway for nearly forty years.

BRITISH WARSHIP NEAR.

San Francisco, Cal., April 22.—A British cruiser was reported outside the Golden Gate by Captain Brennan, of the coast steamer Admiral Farragut, which arrived here yesterday. Captain Brennan said the cruiser trailed his vessel down the coast, maintaining a distance of between ten and fifteen miles from the Admiral Farragut.

CRIPPLED CHILDREN INJURED IN CRASH

Cleveland, Ohio, April 22.—Eleven deformed children, on their way to a school for cripples, were injured, three of them fatally, when the bus in which they were riding was struck by a street car here today. The fatally hurt are: Philip Carpell, 8; Theresa Berislavich, 15; Frances Quinlivan, 10. The attendant to the driver of the rig, Hezekiah Finn, 72, was also badly hurt and may die. The wagon was thrown thirty feet by the car. A. Sutton, the driver, said he saw the car coming, but was unable to stop his wagon because a chippled child had his foot on the brake and it was impossible to reach the brake without pushing this child off the wagon.

On Board U. S. S. Colorado, Lapaz, Mexico, April 21.—By Radio to San Diego, Cal., April 22.—Carranza custom officials, accompanied by 100 soldiers, sailed today on board the steamer Korrigans III. from Mazatlan for San Blas, Tepic, recently evacuated by Villa forces, to take active possession of the town. Col. Obregon, a brother of the Carranza general, has been appointed military commandant at Mazatlan.

French military estimates show that about 25,000,000-horse power is developed in the explosion of a charge from one of the biggest cannon now in use.

INDIANA DELEGATES DIVIDED THE VOTE

New York Woman is Again Chosen National Head of the D. A. R.

Washington, April 22.—With the long drawn out fight for control of the national organization of the Daughters of the American Revolution over and with the faction headed by Mrs. William Cummings Storey, of New York, to direct its destinies for another two years, delegates to the annual congress again settled down today to cleaning up the routine business before them.

The results of yesterday's balloting, announced early today, showed that Mrs. Storey had been re-elected president general and her complete ticket was elected to office by substantial majorities. Mrs. Storey received 695 of a possible 1,156 votes, 461 going to Mrs. George Thatcher Guernsey, of Kansas, the opposing candidate.

When the result was announced the congress rose en masse and cheered the successful candidate, in which the supporters of Mrs. Guernsey joined. In an address following the announcement of the outcome of the election, Mrs. Storey pledged herself to work for the good of the organization, urged the co-operation of the delegates and expressed the hope that past differences would be forgotten.

Today's session was devoted to the presentation of reports from committees and by state regents.

The Indiana delegates divided in the vote for president general. Mrs. Frances Robertson, of Fort Wayne, the retiring state regent, voted for Mrs. George Thacker Guernsey, of Kansas, as did most of the representatives of the chapters from Portland, Lafayette and Rushville. The other Indiana daughters generally voted for the re-election of Mrs. William Cummings Story.

At a meeting of the Indiana delegates it was decided to assist in the purchase of land adjoining the Continental Memorial hall in this city, which is desired as a mode of barring away of undesirable neighbors, and the subscription was taken up for that purpose.

MAY ALLOW INDIANA COAL MINE "TRUST"

Washington, April 22.—Assistant Attorney General C. G. Todd, in charge of trust prosecutions, indicated an agreement yesterday with the Indiana Bituminous Coal Operators' association so that the coal mining companies will be permitted to effect a limited combination for purposes of conservation. The president will authorize final action.

A delegation representing the 114 mining companies, whose holdings are estimated to have a value of $30,000,000, was heard by the federal trade commission and by that body advised to present their case to the attorney general.

The mining companies state that they have been harassed by the conditions of their industry and are compelled to conduct their business in a most burdensome and wasteful manner because of the inhibition of any attempt to combine their interests in any manner that might be interpreted to be in restraint of trade.

The delegation representing the mining companies consisted of Carl Scholz, Chicago, chairman; W. S. Bogle, Chicago; John T. Connery, Chicago; Hugh Shirkie, Terre Haute, Ind.; J. C. Kolsem, Terre Haute, Ind., and M. L. Gould, Indianapolis.

WOMAN CARUSDER BESTS OLD ENEMY

Chicago, April 22.—Mrs. Virginia Brooks Washburne went back to West Hammond Tuesday and got revenge for any setbacks she met while as the "Joan of Arc" of the village she waged more or less successful war against vice.

With Mrs. John F. Bass and the latter's automobile she swept around the village, arguing, referring her hearers to Mrs. Bass, loading women and men into the auto and taking them to the polls.

She overturned the "sure" election of Martin Finneran, her democratic enemy of other years. In his place Paul Kamradt was elected on a People's ticket by a majority of 24. The vote was: Finneran, 825; Kamradt, 849. Democratic city clerk and treasurer were elected, as well as two aldermen.

With the people's mayor, however, went in two people's aldermen, whose election also was due to Mrs. Washburne's hard day's work.

In Philadelphia was started America's first savings bank, and that institution now has about 100,000 more depositors than any other bank in the United States.

MAKES AMERICAN POSITION CLEAR

Stoppage of Shipments of Arms Held Violation of Neutrality.

Washington, April 22.—The American government's answer to the recent memorandum of Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, complaining that while the United States had failed to maintain its right to export food stuffs to Germany it had permitted the shipment of arms to the allies, was before the German government today. The shipment of arms, the ambassador asserted, was not in keeping with the real spirit of neutrality. The American note which had been finally written by President Wilson had been sent by Secretary Bryan to Count von Bernstorff who transmitted it to the German foreign office. The reply is regarded here as a carefully framed statement of the position of the United States and it is believed will clear up any doubt that may have existed as to that position. The attitude of the American government as outlined in the note, is that to stop the shipment of arms during the progress of the war would be in violation of the neutrality of the United States.

The answer explains that the relations of the United States with any of the belligerents can not wisely be discussed with a third government and says that the ambassador's note refers to circumstances, which the United States would have supposed hardly up for discussion between the two governments. The language employed by the ambassador in his memorandum, the note says, "is susceptible of being construed as impugning the good faith of the United States in the performance of its duties as a neutral," but the American reply "takes it for granted that no such implication was intended and adds that evidently the ambassador "is laboring under certain false impressions." The note emphasizes the strong ties of friendship between the United States and Germany and points out that the neutrality of the United States "is founded upon he firm basis of conscience and good will."

POOL ROOMS THEIR DOWNFALL.

Seven Chicago Youths Given Prison Sentences by Courts.

Chicago, April 22.—Seven youths who pleaded they entered criminal careers through loitering in pool rooms, were given prison sentences in Chicago courts yesterday. In sentencing Edwin Kremheller, 18, and Thomas Wardell, 26, to twenty-five years in the penitentiary for killing a bartender, Judge Adelor Petit, of the criminal court, said:

"I intended sentencing you to life imprisonment, but I must consider the fact that the pool rooms, where you started on lives of crime, are permitted to operate by the city."

Fivecthers were sentenced to various terms for robbery.

DIES AFTER OPERATION.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 22.—Eugene Lesser, 51, assistant professor of German at Indiana university, died in a local hospital yesterday after an operation. Mr. Lesser had been connected with the university for twenty years and was a former member of the faculty of DePauw.

Board of Accounts Unable to Settle With Former Officials.

Indianapolis, April 22.—The state board of accounts has reported to Governor Ralston that it has charges aggregating $3,809.30 uncollectible by direct settlement with the persons against a former sheriff of Warrick county, a former mayor of Marion, former treasurers of Sullivan and Jackson counties, a former justice of the peace in Delaware county and a former justice of the peace in Noble county.

The governor transmitted the suits to the attorney general who will submit the cases to the prosecuting attorneys in the different counties in which the officials live with instructions to institute suit to collect the amounts.

The accountants hold that there is due from Former Sheriff Scales, of Warrick county, $1,218.75 which represents fees received for committing and discharging prisoners from jail, notifying viewers of highways, summoning juries etc. Scales, it is said, contends that he had a legal right to the fees.

The sum of $717.41 is due from Henry Price, former treasurer of Jackson county, for a three years period beginning January 1, 1911, according to the board. This amount represents an alleged cash discrepancy and a small amount alleged to have been in excess of what he was entitled to receive as a member of the county board of review.

The claim against Thomas E. Ward, former treasurer of Sullivan county, amounts to $128.78.

The amount alleged to be due from Leonidas Whitney, justice of the peace for Salem township, Delaware county, from 1908 to 1912 is $117.25 and from Elijah P. Lash, justice of the peace of Wayne township, Noble county, from 1910 to 1912 is $207.06 representing docket fees and fines unaccounted for.

The accounts explain that Lash was ill at the time they made their examination and that, for this reason, they were unable to give him an opportunity to explain alleged discrepancies.

HER TRAGIC LIFE STORY UNREVEALED

Death Makes Seal on Lips of Hugo's Daughter Eternal.

Paris, April 22.—Adele Hugo, youngest daughter of Victor Hugo, died yesterday at her residence in Suresnes, a suburb of this city, at the age of 85 years.

The sad and tragic life story of Adele Hugo many years ago aroused the sympathy of the entire world. As a girl she was kidnapped at Guernsey by an English officer. All Europe was aiding her parents in hearching for her but they obtained no trace of her whereabouts. Several months later a girl found wandering alone in the streets of New York, apparently demented, declared, "I am the daughter of Victor Hugo." This was the only statement she ever made.

She was sent back to France to her parents but her lips remained sealed until the end and the tragic story of her life never was revealed. She failed to entirely recover her reason and after the death of her father lifed a solitary existence in her villa, morose and seldom speaking. When she did consent to converse it never was of the past. Mlle. Hugo's only appearances in public were when she went to Paris to witness from the back of a darkened box the reproduction of one of her father's plays. Apparently she had no friends and never received visitors.

Workmen reroofing the home of Attorney Joel B. Dow, of Beloit, Wis., found 200 pounds of excellent honey in the attic under the eaves.

CROSS, FEVERISH, SICK CHILDREN NEED "CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS"

A coated tongue means sluggish liver and bowels—Listen mother!

Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has sour stomach, diarrhoea, remember a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills. Give a teaspoonful and in just a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food, clogged in the bowels, passes out of the system and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless fruit laxative and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on each bottle.

Mother, keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs." Then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no cheaper size. Don't be fooled.—Adv.

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "TIZ."

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." Its grand—its glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.—Adv.

Fort Wayne Chicken Thieves to Plead Guilty at Bluffton.

Bluffton, Ind., April 22.—The prospect is that Grant Cumierford and Clyde Dubois, of Fort Wayne, will draw sentences to the penitentiary next Tuesday when they are arraigned in court here for stealing poultry in Wells county. The men have indicated that they will plead guilty and seek the mercy of the court. The affidavit filed here charges the stealing of seven chickens from Noah Bennett, a Wells county farmer, and a former conviction in Allen county for larceny. With this previous conviction against them it is not thought likely they will escape prison sentences. Cumierford and Dubois were arrested last week after being pursued and surrounded by a posse of armed farmers under the leadership of Sheriff Johnson and Deputy Albright.

FARMERS FIGHT A FIRE.

Columbia City, Ind., April 22.—Fire broke out in the house of John McCoy in Union township, and did a lot of damage. The fire started by a spark from the kitchen chimney in the roof of the main part of the house. Mrs. McCoy, who was out in the yard, discovered the fire and summoned the neighbors by telephone to come to her aid. Upon their arrival the furniture was carried from down stairs and water was thrown onto the blaze by as energetic a band of fire fighters as any city can boast of. Thirty or forty farmers came hurredly after being called and the fire was under good headway by the time they got there. A bucket brigade was formed and the pump near the house was worked with a vigor that got results. The total loss will be about $600—$375 on contents and $225 on building.

PIONEER OF KENDALLVILLE.

Kendallville, Ind., April 22.—In the death of William Akenhead Kendallville loses another of its old and respected citizens; a man who has been a resident here for approximately fifty years. The end came very suddenly, the grip being the principal cause. Mr. Akenhead was born August 23, 1843,, near Lyons, N. Y. He was the youngest of five children and was the last surviving member of his family. He came to Kendallville when a young man. He was married here December 23, 1866, to Eva Catherine Moody, who died in 1907. Mr. Akenhead was a machinist by trade and worked for over forty years with the Flint & Walling company, much of the time as foreman of the machine shop. He was a veteran of the civil war and a member of Browand post of G. A. R., and of the Knights of Pythias.

DIED IN TOLEDO HOSPITAL.

Columbia City, Ind., April 22.—Mrs. Lew King received a telegram from her brother, Arthur Ellis, Wednesday, stating that his wife had died in a hospital in Toledo and that her remains would be taken back to their home in Bryan, Ohio. Mrs. Ellis' was formerly Miss Blanche Liggett, daughter of the late James Liggett, and she was very well known in this city, where she grew to womanhood. She was popular among her friends and associates here, and was united in marriage to Mr. Ellis the latter part of February, 1905, at Huntington. There are three children.

WED 36 YEARS; SEEKS DIVORCE.

Goshen, Ind., April 22.—In the circuit court Almira Mummert has filed suit for divorce from Nathaniel Mummert, a well known Middlebury farmer, who has a 60 acre farm worth $6,000, $2,000 in the bank and personal effects worth $600. They were married April 13, 1879—over 36 years ago—and separated April 20, 1915. The three children, daughters, are all of age. Mrs. Mummert claims her husband has choked and otherwise abused her, that he indulges in drinking liquor to excess and that he called her vile names and ordered her out of their house, threatening to kill her if she did not obey his orders.

THROWS AT HORSE; IS KICKED.

Huntington, Ind., April 22.—The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Little, who live on the Warren road, suffered a severely gashed nose Wednesday. The child was playing in the pasture near the house, and playfully threw a corn stalk at a horse nearby. It enraged the animal and it kicked the child, tearing the flesh off her nose. A physician was called at once, and he took her to his office, where he took seven stitches in her nose.

DIES OF BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

Auburn, Ind., April 22.—Bright's disease caused the death of Joseph Pepple, for 47 years a resident of Butler township. Mr. Pepple was 47 years of age and had made his home in Butler township all his life. He lived a short distance from New Era. For the past four months. Mr. Pepple had suffered a great deal from the dreaded disease and death came as a relief on Wednesday.

Mr. Pepple is survived by a wife and three sisters. No children were born to the union. Mr. Pepple was one of the best known citizens in that part of DeKalb county.

CHILD FALLS FROM WINDOW.

Hartford City, Ind., April 22.—Earl, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Carson, residing in the Carrell flats here, was probably fatally injured when he fell from the second story window of his home late Wednesday afternoon, plunging to the pavement below. Mrs. Carson had just started to lead the child away from the window when he opened it in a playful effort to get away and fell out.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Proverbs 8:1-18.

1 Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?

2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of the paths.

3 She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the coming in at the doors.

4 Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice is to the sons of man.

5 O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye fools, be ye of an understanding heart.

6 Hear; for I will speak of excellent things: and the opening of my lips shall be right things.

7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination to my lips.

8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there is nothing froward or perverse in them.

10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than choice gold.

11 For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.

12 I wisdom dwell with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions.

13 The fear of the Lord is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the evil way, and the forward mouth, do I hate.

14 Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength.

15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.

17 I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me.

The President's Address

The wisdom of President Wilson's counsel regarding the attitude and the opportunity of the United States in the European war situation, was never more forcefully brought out than in the address which he delivered at the luncheon of The Associated Press in New York on Tuesday. Throughout the trying position of the United States in the maintenance of strict and just neutrality, with the countless intricate and unexpected complexities which have arisen, the president has frequently pointed the wise way and the safe course for his countrymen. The newest utterance is well worthy of thoughtful heed.

Beset by charges that first one and then another of the belligerents were being favored by the course of the United States, the president has gone calmly forward in his delicate duty. The point he now emphasizes is that the national purpose is not the petty desire to keep out of trouble, but the loftier one to help effectively in the adjustment that must follow when the fighting ceases. There is a much greater work to do than fighting, and the United States will be in position as the foremost of the world's nations to lead the way to peace. That will be a glory infinitely greater than could possibly be won by any victor in war, whatever the result of armed contest.

The president's counsel is for toleration, for moderation in speech and action, for an avoidance of partisanship. "America is not all vocal just now," said the president; "it is vocal in spots. I, for one, have an abiding faith in that great, silent body of Americans who are not standing up and shouting or expressing their opinions just now, but are patiently waiting to find out and support the duty of America." That utterance sounds the keynote of the duty of American citizenship. It will not only avoid unfortunate entanglements, but it will put Americans in position to perform a world service when the time for adjustment of difference arrives.

Seven Chicago young men who have just been sentenced to prison terms explained to the court that they had embarked in criminal careers as a result of loitering in disreputable pool rooms. The case of three of the lads, convicted of murder, moved the judge to observe that while life sentences were amply merited by the magnitude of the crime, it must not be forgotten that pool rooms which start young boys on lives of crime were permitted by the city to operate. The court is right. Toleration of low-grade places of this character constitutes a responsibility from which no city which permits this sort of thing can escape. They are breeding places of crime and lawlessness, and the injury they do to youths who frequent them is monumental.

Scores of Fort Wayne voters are daily signing the petition asking the city council to elect a woman to membership on the Fort Wayne school board in June, and organization after organization is throwing the weight of its expression into the balance in favor of the movement. It really begins to appear that there isn't going to be serious opposition from any quarter to giving woman recognition in work in which she is interested, perhaps, as in no other—the education of her children.

The city of Warren, Ill., has just elected a woman as mayor, and although she is 75 years of age, she has announced a policy of reform that means relentless warfare on gambling, grafting and disreputable resorts that portends some extremely lively times as well as a civic renovation in Warren. Something tells us, also, that she means precisely what she says, and that none of the clean-up orders will be attended by the traditional wink that places them in the realm of pure bluff.

Government inspectors, after going over the Fort Wayne postoffice thoroughly declare it to be one of the best managed offices in the country. That being true, we submit that as a sort of reward of merit Uncle Sam hurry along that new postoffice building of which he recognizes this city stands much in need in order to still more efficiently take care of its postal business.

The Fort Wayne Central Leaguers lost the opener at Terre Haute, but Manager Bade Myers wishes it distinctly understood that the result in no wise establishes anything event remotely resembling a precedent for the remainder of the current baseball season.

Illinois voters at special local option elections Tuesday delivered a wallop that put one hundred more saloons out of business in that state. Apparently straws still continue to show which way the wind is blowing.

Gail Martin Says She Can No Longer Stand Bob for Husband.

Stating that life with her husband is no longer bearable, Gail Martin has begun action in the superior court against Robert Martin for divorce. She says that for the past five years he has treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner. He is charged with having no love for his home, spending his evenings away and leaving his wife and child "in constant solitude." Besides this he is accused of being quarrelsome, nagging and fault-finding. Of a son now 5 years old, the plaintiff asks the custody and $5 a week for support. They were married in June, 1903, and separated last month.

Wife Files Cross-Complaint.

In the divorce suit of Jacob E. Soliday against Minnie Soliday, the wife has filed a cross-complaint in which she comes back with some warm arguments in reply to the sensational charges of her husband. She calls him a habitual drunkard, says he has beaten her so she carried black and blue marks for weeks, has boasted of his relations with other women and falsely accused her of wrongdoing. She admits she scratched his face, as he charged, but says she did it in self-defense, while he was choking her. They were once divorced and remarried.

Says She Was Driven From Home.

Myrtle Welsh has sued in the superior court for divorce from John Welsh, and complains of him that he drinks to excess, calls her vile names, strikes and beats her and capped the climax by driving her away from home after falsely accusing her of intimacy with strange men. They were married March 6, 1908, and separated the 20th of this month. An order has been issued restraining him from molesting her at 1502 West Main street and preventing the Nickel Plate railroad from paying him his wages while the suit pends.

Neglected and Abandoned.

Hazel Fowler asks the superior court to grant her a divorce from Raymond Fowler, alleging that he has failed to provide for her support and has deserted her. They were married in July, 1910, and separated three years ago.

Suit to Quiet Title.

Suit to quiet the title on lots 55 and 56 in Orff's place, Fort Wayne, was filed in the circuit court by Minerva A. Chapman, Wednesday afternoon.

Will of Late Joseph Newton.

The will of the late Joseph Newton, of Marion township, was filed in the circuit court for probate Wednesday afternoon. The deceased leaves his entire estate, consisting principally of 132 acres of land in Marion township to his wife, Mary Newton. At her death the estate is to be divided equally among the seven children as follows: Frank Newton, Emma Kenally, Mary Kenally, Sarah Larimore, Ann LaFountain, Joseph M. Newton and John Newton. He asked that his son, John Newton, be named as executor.

Notes of the Courts.

The will of the late Joseph Newton, of Marion township, Henry county, Ohio, has been filed for probate in the Allen circuit court. All his estate is left for life to his wife, at whose death it is to go to their seven children.

A divorce has been granted by the superior court to Emma Reffelt from Harry Reffelt. Three little children were given into custody of the board of children's guardians and homes will be found for them.

The suit of the Terre Haute Handle company vs. Walter and M. E. Reynolds has been dismissed from the circuit court for want of prosecution. The plaintiff has until June 4 to make a move.

County Clerk David C. Stout has received from Samuel Carson, secretary and registrar of Wyoming consistory, No. 1, A. A. S. R., a high Masonic body, the will of the late Walter S. Palmer, government weather forecaster in Fort Wayne, whose death occurred last week. The testament had been deposited with the order at Cheyenne, Wyo., from which city Mr. Palmer came to Fort Wayne four years ago. The will leaves $3,000 and the household goods to the widow, Mary A. Palmer, and the balance of his estate to two sons—Claude R. Palmer and Irving A. Palmer. In the event of the death of Mrs. Palmer before his demise, $1,000 each was left to her two children by a former marriage.

Henry F. Braun, painter, 26, and Louise Doriss Busse, 23.

The will of the late Eugene G. Trenkley has been filed for probate. He leaves his entire estate, real and personal, in fee simple to his wife, Emma A. Trenkley.

The Ten Broeck Tire and Rubber company, of Louisville, Ky., has brought suit in the superior court against Sheriff Emil C. Gladieux for replevin and $200 damages. It is alleged the sheriff is in wrongful and unlawful possession of a lot of tires seized on execution.

In the divorce suit of Gertrude Reed vs. Earl Reed, the defendant has been cited to appear in the superior court April 27 to answer to contempt for having failed to obey the court's order concerning payments.

COMPARES GRADUATES TO SOLDIERS OF WAR

Rev. Michael Aichinger, formerly assistant at St. Peter's, but now of the Cathedral of Immaculate Conception, of Auburn, in his address delivered at the graduation exercises of the twenty-one children at St. Peter's Catholic church, compared the graduates with the soldiers who are ready to leave for the scene of the battle. His address was very impressive and was well received by the large audience which packed the auditorium of the church. Rev. Charles Thiele, assisted by Rev. E. H. Vurpillat, presented the diplomas.

Father Aichinger based his sermon on the class motto, "Against the Current." In the introductory he alluded to the declaration of war in the land of their fathers and forefathers. He drew up a striking picture in the minds of his listeners how the soldiers who were called left home and all to whom they were bound with ties of love and devotion. Thousands of people wished them God speed.

He continued: "We have assembled here this evening to bid twenty-one young graduates of St. Peter's school who are about to set out to fight the battles of life, 'God Speed.' As the soldier must make great preparation, so you, dear graduates, have trained for nearly ten years under able leaders. your parents, pastors and teachers and you are now equipped to make the journey."

The graduates are: Albert P. Berg, Clement T. Clusserath, Charles B. Grothouse, George C. Yager, Anthony V. Yehl, Henry A. Klingenberger, Ferdinand J. Kuentzel, Frank J. Mattes, Omer J. Mettler, Raymond L. Niebie, Ross A. Van Horn, Benedict J. Zern, Elizabeth M. Baumann, Marie M. Blank, Marie M. Himbert, Leona H. Jordan, Luella A. Junk, Mary E. Leonarg, Marie L. V. Waldmann, Marie V. Woodworth, Gertrude M. Wyss.

PUT STOMACH IN FINE CONDITION

Says Indigestion Results from an Excess of Hydrochloric Acid.

Undigested food delayed in the stomach decays, or rather, ferments the same as food left in the open air, says a noted authority. He also tells us that indigestion is caused by Hyper-acidity, meaning, there is an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which prevents complete digestion and starts food fermentation. Thus everything eaten sours in the stomach much like garbage sours in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. Then we feel a heavy, lumpy misery in the chest, we belch up gas, we eructate sour food or have heartburn, flatulence, water-brash or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and drink while it is effervescing and furthermore, to continue this for a week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jads Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results.—Adv.

PURDUE CLUB MAKES BIG HIT WITH PLAY

"Eight Little Wives," given at the Majestic theater Wednesday evening, under the auspices of the Harlequin club of Purdue university, made a most favorable impression and the large crowd that greeted the students were highly pleased. Applause and college yells were frequent throughout the evening.

Members of the cast and the nineteen piece orchestra were all Purdue students belonging to the Harlequin club, which organization stages a play of this kind each year.

"Eight Little Wives" was written by George Ade, the famous humorist, who some years ago graduated from Purdue. For years he has been one of the trustees of the university and has always taken a great interest in its affairs. The success of the play is largely due to George Herbert, the coach, who has been directing the club for the past eight years.

The music was catchy and well rendered. R. H. Dwiggins, as "Ki-Ram," the sultan of Sulu, undoubtedly made the big hit of the evening. The sultan took great interest in learning American ways and customs when his island was claimed by Uncle Sam and changed into a republic. Special mention should also be made of H. S. O'Brien, as "Hadji;" G. H. Smith, as "Major Rice;" D. J. Bellinger, as his daughter; L. B. McKnight as "Pamela Jackson," and B. L. McCullum as "Chiquita."

After the performance a reception was given for the visitors at the Commercial club.

OSSIAN NEWS.

Ossian, Ind., April 22.—Ralph Delbert Koons, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Koons, passed away Tuesday morning after an illness of some duration, the immediate cause of death being due to leakage of the tube to the lung. The child, who was born April 5, 1913, is survived by his parents and one brother, Claude. The funeral takes place today at 2 p. m. at the M. E. church. Rev. J. Orr Powell officiating. Burial will be in Oak Lawn.

Miss Lurah Davison was hostess for the Daphne Girls at a very pleasant gathering Tuesday evening. Miss Mabel Roe conducted the devotions and Miss Susie Bailey read a very good paper on the "Life of David." A business meeting and social hour followed, when nice refreshments of cake and fruit were served. Those present were Misses Thelma Spencer, Lulu Prough, Mary and Martha Way, Nina Bowman, Ethel Hendry, Susie Bailey, Stella Quackenbush, Nellie Gibson, Dola and Fay Fryback, Glen Quackenbush, Hattie Wilson, Mary Hunter, Helen Numbers, Mabel Roe, Adah Brickley and Mrs. Carl Wilson. SUFFERED 15 YEARS WITH PSORIASIS

Weeks at a Time in Such Misery Did Not Get a Night's Rest. Used Cuticura. In 18 Weeks Entirely Well.

107 N. Mesaba Ave., Virginia, Minn.—"Since I was fourteen years of age I suffered with psoriasis. I was suffering for fifteen years. For the first nine or ten years it would come and go but each appearance would be longer and more severe until it refused to leave at all until I got so bad that I could not do any work. At times there was not a place on my entire body, excepting my face and hands that was not covered. Weeks at a time I would be in such misery that I did not get a night's rest. My body was covered with shiny white scales and under them was as red and inflamed as blood. They would crack open some half an inch in length.

"My husband was telling a friend of the condition I was in, and he too had been a sufferer of the same trouble and had been healed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I at once commenced the treatment. In eighteen weeks I was entirely well." (Signed) Mrs. Edwin Mitchell, June 22, 1914.

SOUTHERN ROUTE HAS BEST CHANCE

While it makes little difference locally which route is selected for the proposed Toledo, Fort Wayne and Chicago barge canal, Fort Wayne promoters are of the opinion that eventually the southern route will be accepted.

This opinion is based on the theory that the ground is much leveller and would not require the building of near as many locks as the northern route.

H. C. Gardner, chairman of the waterway committee of Chicago, has issued a statement declaring that the Calumet basin must be used as the canal terminus, which would mean that the southern route would have to be accepted.

Everything is in readiness for the visit of the army board to Fort Wayne next week, at which time Captain L. H. Watkins' report will be thoroughly gone over for the first time. If the report is rejected announcement of the fact will be made before the board leaves the city. It is not expected that this will be done.

TAKING CARE OF THE CHILDREN.

No parent would consciously be careless of the children. Joe A. Rozmarin, Clarkson, Nebr., uses Foley's Honey and Tar for his two children for croup, coughs and colds. He says, "We are never without Foley's Honey and Tar in the house." A distressing cough, sleepless nights, and raw, inflamed throat lead to a run-down condition in which the child is not able to resist contagious or infectious diseases. Foley's Honey and Tar is truly healing and prompt in action. It relieves coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. Dreier Drug Co.—Adv.

DYSPEPSIA GONE! NO INDIGESTION. GAS, SOURNESS--PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

When your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Adv.

BOYS' $3.00 $2.50 $2.00 $1.75

MISSES' $2.50 $2.00

Boy's $2.00, $2.50 & $3.00 school and dress shoes, best in the world.

CAUTION! When buying W. L. Douglas shoes look for his NAME AND PRICE stamped on the bottom. Shoes thus stamped are always worth the price paid for them. For 32 years W. L. Douglas has guaranteed their value and protected the wearer against high prices for inferior shoes by having his NAME AND PRICE stamped on the bottom before they leave the factory. Do not be persuaded to take some other make claimed to be just as good. You are paying your money and are entitled to the best.

If you could visit the W. L. Douglas factory at Brockton, Mass., and see how carefully the shoes are made, and the high grade leathers used, you would then understand why they look and fit better, hold their shape and wear longer than other makes for the price.

If your dealer cannot supply you write for Illustrated Catalog showing how to order by mail.

Mrs. Daniel Milligan entertained a few young women this afternoon in honor of Miss Mary Menefee, at a party of charming arrangements both in coloring and other details. It was really a pink party for that color appeared frequently in the flowers, in the menu for supper and in numerous bows of tulle and ribbon-tied packages that constituted a "shower" of gifts for Miss Menefee. The supper table was quite beautiful with its luncheon set of Florentine lace, its basket of daisies, swansonia and sweetpeas blossoms and airy bows of pink tulle were tied on candlesticks and on the handles of small china baskets of rose design filled with candy and on crocheted lace baskets of nuts. There were heart-shaped cakes frosted in pink and ice cream to correspond and a number of other pretty appointments that delighted Miss Menefee and the dozen intimate friends invited. A bouquet of flowers marked Miss Menefee's place at the table.

An announcement party of much beauty of arrangement was given by Miss Irma Malone, of 1724 West Main street, Wednesday evening when she entertained a dozen young women and at supper time gave the date of Wednesday, May 26, as the day of her coming marriage to L. A. Baker, a son of A. J. Baker. Miss Malone served supper early in the evening and was assisted at the time by Mrs. Groves, Mrs. Fagan and Miss Jessie Malone. When the guests were seated at the supper table they found in baskets of flowers their place cards and on the reverse side from the name was written the date of the wedding which is to take place in the Cathedral. Ribbons leading from baskets were gathered under a crystal basket filled with snapdragon blossoms, mignonette and sweetpeas, pink and lavender being the colors. After the desert course the young ladies were asked to pull on the ribbons and when they did each received a corsage bouquet. There were present to enjoy this happy prenuptial party Misses Fannie Matson, Marie Calkins, Margaret Misner, Josephine and Marie Kelly, Marie and Hilda Pierre, Dorothy Kilgore, Merle Matson, Helen Gerow, Helene Clifford, Hazel Malone.

The U. R. W. club members spent a pleasant evening on Tuesday at the home of Miss Helen Dodane. Members of the club are Misses Helen and Zoa Dodane, Minnie Witte, Gladys Allway, Luella and Gertrude Lankenau. Miss Lankenau will be the next hostess.

The popular concert annually given by the Morning Musical society will be on Monday, April 26, in the Majestic theater. As is customary the admission will be ten cents to any part of the house. No seats are reserved. An unusual program is being arranged.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hunting and sons, Stanley and Billy, leave tonight for a five or six weeks' trip to California and the expositions.

Rev. Dr. Moffat and Mrs. Moffat are to have a family reunion soon as Dr. Moffat's two married daughters are coming home for a visit. Mrs. R. F. Kautz and son, David, Moffat Kautz, of Indianapolis, are expected tomorrow, and Mrs. Ben Ninde, of Chicago, is coming in May for a visit of several weeks. Another visitor who was a Fort Wayne girl before her marriage, who will join Mrs. Ninde here for a few days, will be Mrs. Rohler, also of Chicago, who will be well remembered as Miss Ethel Ninde.

Fifteen little friends of Bernadine Marsack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Marsack, called Sunday afternoon to help celebrate her sixth birthday anniversary. All kinds of games were enjoyed. At six o'clock an appetising luncheon was served. The table was prettily decorated in pink and the guests received dainty favors as souvenirs of the day. The guests were Selma Levey, Florence Berman, Sylvia Berman, Florence Grashin, Esther Sivit, Iren Nejman, Gilbert Meyer, Boren Novitsky, Silvia and Herbert Winroube, Mildred Hardung, Lilian Frauenfender, Anna Salivay, Joe Saffron.

A pleasant surprise was given yesterday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Piepenbrink, to honor the birthday anniversary of their daughter, Mrs. Kelly. Music and games helped to while away the hours in an agreeable manner. Prizes in contests were earned by Mrs. L. Neireiter, Mrs. F. Wagner, Mrs. W. Washburn and Mrs. H. Subkowski. Others in the party were Mesdames B. Steward, J. Garrison, E. Smith, Rauch, L. Smith, A. Crisamore, Carroll, G. Vallrop, F. Hackman, H. Hackman, Sherwood, F. Gronau, Hockmeyer, W. Bobb, C. Noble, Bennett, B. Waddington, Sherman, Fredericks, Doenges, Miss Irma Lupke.

The many friends in Fort Wayne of Miss Loretta Hayes, a Fort Wayne girl, who is pursuing her vocal studies in New York city, are hearing with pleasure that she has a chance to appear in light opera during the coming summer at seashore summer resorts in an important role opposite Francis Adair. Miss Hayes is a pupil of Mrs. E. H. Kirkland, but has been studying for some months with Signor Yon, of the Metropolitan, who predicts a future of success for the young woman. Miss Hayes has a position in a business office in New York and is earning her way as she is a capable stenographer and had had considerable experience here before she went away. Miss Hayes will appear in a song recital in the Yon studio within a few weeks.

AT THE NEW PALACE

PHOTOS AS SOUVENIRS.

New Palace Will Give Pictures of Alexander Kids Saturday.

As a special feature of the reception to be tendered by the Alexander Kids for all the school children in Fort Wayne on the stage of the New Palace theater Saturday afternoon, specially posed photographs of the talented youngsters will be given each guest. The Alexander Kids are two of the most precocious youngsters on the vaudeville stage and are just as remarkable off the stage as on, as they have been as carefully tutored in the customary school branches as they have in their dancing and singing numbers. They are delightful youngsters, modest to a degree, although in no wise diffident or shy. The dances these children have been taught would be remarkable even for regular grown ups, but when executed with charming grace by two little tads they are revelations.

The entire B. F. Keith road show is one calculated to bridge over the chasm between prosaic everyday life and the land of joy, for it includes in its roster such consummate artists as Laddy Cliff, the English boy comedian, in his inimitable group of songs and eccentric dances; Will Oswald, the famous American lyric tenor and associate singers, in the musical novelty, "At the Club;" Charles Cartmell and Laura Harris, the renowned singing and dancing duo; the Tuscano Brothers in their unique battle axe juggling; Billy Lloyd and George F. Britt, the vaudeville monkeyshine team, and the international bicycle poloists in an exacting game of polo played on wheels.

AT THE MINUET.

The Minuet offers a great bill today. This pretty theater is certainly getting the business. The management is to be congratulated by the movie fans for the splendid plays and good clean comedies.

Today the great Pathe-Frere's three-reel drama, "The God of Wrath," telling the story of sin punished as never before known; a play full of dramatic interest from start to finish. Just released, the film is clear as day and Ruth Roland takes the lead. In connection the Minuet offers "The Troubles of Rufus," a rollicking comedy.

There will be pleasure without end in this tremendously funny film story of the antics, the woes and the predicaments into which the characters fall.

Tomorrow the famous actor, Carlyle Blackwell, in the well known picture, "The Key to Yesterday."

AT THE COLONIAL

Sensational Melodrama With Thrills and Love Interest.

How a young woman matches her wits against those of the diplomats of a hostile nation, wins and saves her husband from a traitor's death provides the concomitant interests in this intensely thrilling five part drama, "The Woman Who Dared." The play is not strictly a war picture, but it vividly depicts diplomatic intrigue of the sort that lead to the cataclysmic struggle in Europe.

There are any number of exciting moments throughout the plot, one of the most striking incidents being a remarkable race between a high powered racing machine and a locomotive.

AT THE LYRIC.

"On the Night Stage," a Mutual Masterpicture Featuring Two Celebrated American Actors, Robert Edeson and W. S. Hart at the Lyric Today and Tomorrow.

In producing this virile drama of the Golden West, care was taken to set the scenes in a typical frontier town with towering mountains for a background. The wild, free atmosphere of hill and plain prevades the picture, while excitement, thrill and danger enliven the action. For it is a story of real manhood in the making—a narrative of adventure and daring deed. It is a drama with a big theme—that love and friendship, after all, are the things worth while.

Mr. Edeson plays the part of a fighting parson and there is a wonderful scene in which he battles single-handed with a crowd of cowboys. For the most part, however, his acting is characterized by that sincerity and earnestness that befits the role.

Mr. Hart as the avenging road agent, gives a most remarkable portrayal of a "two-gun man"—a diamond in the rough—who is redeemed from the dangerous life of a bandit by the transforming power of a great love.

AT THE JEFFERSON.

BELASCO'S "MAY BLOSSOM."

Famous Old Drama Revived on the Screen at Jefferson.

In "May Blossom" is contained every surprise, suspense and dramatic intensity that have made the name of Belasco synonymous with the best genius of the American stage.

"May Blossom" relates the story of a girl beloved by two men, one of whom does not hesitate to lie in order to win her for himself. He tells her the other, the favored suitor, has gone away never to return, when he has been intrusted by his rival on the eve of his arrest by Northern soldiers as a spy, to explain to the girl that he will vindicate his honor and return to her. With the continued absence of her lover, May turns to her deceiver and finally marries him. Eventually the other returns, and the stress of the drama developed through this thrilling climax may be easily imagined.

Tomorrow marks the appearance at the Jefferson of Henrietta Crosman in "The Unwelcome Mrs. Hatch."

MR. HENRY F. BRAUN.

MRS. HENRY F. BRAUN.

A beautiful home wedding took place Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Busse, 2311 Weisser Park avenue. The bride was the younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Busse, Miss Louise D. Busse, and the groom was Mr. Henry F. Braun, son of Mrs. Catherine Braun. There were no attendants. Rev. Henry Luehr, pastor of Zion's Lutheran church, officiated at the marriage service and relatives were guests. Music as the bride and groom entered the living room was furnished by Messrs. Bruner and Weitzman, violin and piano players, who rendered the bridal march from "Lohengrin" and played during the ceremony. The bride presented a very attractive and sweet appearance in a very pretty gown of ivory charmeuse over which hung fillet net made in graduated tucks for drapery and with bolero jacket of the net with lace that matched it for an edge. The dress was made with a long train over which the folds of the tulle veil the bride wore, fell gracefully. The veil was fashioned into a cap for the head and was edged with lace like that on waist of the dress. The bride's bouquet was a shower of bride roses and lilies of the valley. The house was decorated throughout with ferns, smilax festooning the chandeliers and doorways and roses and smilax on the dinner table for the bride and groom. A group of palms and ferns was arranged as a background for the bridal couple to stand as they plighted their troth by exchanging rings. The wedding dinner was served at 5 o'clock and was a bountiful one with smilax and roses decorating the tables and extending from the chandelier to the corners of the table. Fluffy bows of white tulle were tied to the candlesticks that held white candles and the effect of white and green was lovely. After May 1, the bride andgroom will be at home with the bride's parents as the upper part of the house is to be converted into an apartment for them. For traveling the bride wears a suit of blue poplin with pale pink chiffon blouse and a hat of sand shade of hemp braid trimmed with facing of pink and with tailored pink velvet bows and a cluster of flowers. An informal reception follows the dinner this evening at which the bride and groom, together with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Busse and Mrs. Braun, will receive the guests while Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dickmeyer, sister and brother of the bride, and Mrs. Keller Heist will assist in the rooms. The bridegroom is a painter and is employed by the bride's father who is a well known contractor. Both bride and groom are very well known and much admired young people in their circle of friends and acquaintances.

"Back-to-Nature" Food

Wheat, just as Nature provides it, is an ideal food—because it contains every element necessary to sustain life.

Whole wheat, mixed with the proper percentage of bran, to make it slightly laxative, provides a food which meets the demands of our modern life perfectly.

I just helped them fellers put it in a wagon to get it fixed."

Pete didn't wait for much more, but rushed upstairs to find his safe gone. He didn't notify headquarters, but hastened to the home of Detective Sergeant William F. Pappert, on John street, and there reported the robbery. Then headquarters got the first inkling of the sensational job.

A half hour of valuable time, of which the robbers made the most, had slipped away and before the police department had learned of the robbery the cracksmen doubtless had finished the job on the outlets and returned to the city.

Many Men Stood About.

A score or so of foreigners who have lodging in the clutter of buildings about the Tanis saloon stood in the yards and on the streets and saw the robbers haul the safe down the stairs and place it in the wagon. They gave the incident the attention of mild curiosity and said nothing, the part John Tanis had taken in the removal fully extinguishing suspicion if they had any.

The outer door of the safe was removed with chisel and sledge in the room of Pete Tanis. Fearing the noise might cause interruption if kept up too long the robbers decided on an audacious step and they got away with it. Out on the Lafayette Place addition they removed the inner door and found the key of the little strong-box in the door. The rest was easy.

The cash was mainly in bills of large denomination and belonged to foreign laborers who had been in the habit of making Pete Tanis custodian of their funds. There were a lot of checks. A certificate of deposit for $300 from the First National bank to Yan Laze and another for $125 payable to George Stiff were found where the robbers abandoned the safe. George Anweiler, a construction foreman, found $15 in cash at the scene.

Engineer Finds Safe.

Francis Bulot, engineer in the employ of the Wildwood Builders company, discovered the safe less than an hour after the robbery had occurred, and for a time thought it had been dumped there with some junk. However, when he saw that it still had some papers in it, he took the contents to the Wildwood office and from there to the police station.

The place the safe was discovered was within two hundred feet of Calhoun street, near Pettit avenue in the Wildwood company's new addition, Lafayette place. Although the grove is rather heavy the place at which the safe was found is plainly visible from Calhoun street.

MOSS WILL RETALIATE.

Arrested for Vote-Buying, Will Now Seek Federal Probe.

Paris, Ill., April 22.—A federal investigation of alleged election irregularities here by the United States grand jury at East St. Louis next month is to be sought by H. Clay Moss, who was arrested here Tuesday night on a charge of vote-buying that day. Moss declared today that he would take last November's election before the grand jury in retaliation for his "false arrest." A hearing of the charge against Moss and Mrs. Hattie O'Neil, also arrested on a charge of vote buying, will be held next Tuesday.

LUCKY STONES FAIL HIM.

Boston Jeweler Convicted of Fraud Despite His "Charms."

Boston, April 22.—Walter L. Rand, a jeweler of this city, was found guilty by a jury in the federal court of using the mails in a scheme to defraud through the sale of alleged "lucky stones" in many parts of the country. Purchasers of the stones who were called as witnesses by both the prosecution and defense during the trial gave conflicting testimony as to the apparent efficiency of the "charms" in bringing them luck in poker games, love affairs, cases of illness and efforts to obtain work.

People Will Be Enlightened on Big Project to Control the Rivers.

Ward and township mass meetings will be held, beginning perhaps early next week, to enlighten the people of the city and county on the new flood prevention law under which it is purposed to take measures against future disasters by high water. At these meetings the scope and objects of the new law will be made plain and property owners will be urged to sign the petitions asking the courts to establish the drainage district already outlined and to create a flood commission to carry out the program of flood prevention works. Meetings will be held in each ward and probably in each of the townships that are included in the proposed flood district.

The petitions have been completed by County Auditor Will Johnson. They contain the names of all the property owners in the proposed district alphabetically arranged, with the description of the property owned by each. Opposite this is a blank space for the signature of the petitioner. These petitions will be carried to each property owner by men selected for the work. It is hoped to save time and a great deal of expense by getting signatures at the mass meetings that have been planned.

City Attorney Guy Colerick and County Attorney E. G. Hoffman arranged for a conference Thursday afternoon to prepare a digest of the new law that a copy of it may be attached to each book of petitions so that the measure may be fully explained to each property owner solicited to give his signature. Under the flood prevention law passed for this county the signatures of more than 50 per cent. of the property owners are necessary to make the petition valid in the court asked to establish the flood prevention or drainage district. When the district is created the board of county commissioners and the city board of works become a joint drainage commission to carry out the plans for flood works.

LAKE AVENUE TO COME UP.

Board Will Give Hearing on Resolution to Pave East End of It.

There will be a hearing Thursday evening before the board of public works on the resolution to pave that portion of Lake avenue lying between the west line of Anthony boulevard and the city limits, a distance of about 900 feet. The resolution calls for a pavement of tarvia-filled macadam and it will be up for confirmation. There is some prospect of a remonstrance. Two of the resident property owners have objected to the improvement unless the grade of the street is relocated, by cutting it down some three feet. The city board and the county commissioners, which bodies have agreed on paving the street—part of which is not in the city, have refused to consider a change of the grade.

The board will have up for confirmation the assessment rolls for the opening of Barr street from the south line of Ormiston heirs' addition to Rudisill boulevard, and the resolution for vacating the south sixty-six feet of the alley east of Fairfield avenue, in Robert's Place addition.

Albert Lochner, remodel two-story frame residence 513 Mechanic street, $700.

YES, HE KNEW ALL OF THAT

Albany politics were then admitted to the record. The terms "machine politics," "Boss Barnes and Boss Platt," appeared repeatedly in these articles.

"Conspiracy" Also Mentioned.

"The Murphy-Barnes conspiracy" was also mentioned in the articles. After the articles were read, Col. Roosevelt resumed the stand. In reply to questions by Mr. Bowers he said:

"I received a letter from Mr. Barnes about the state printing house after I had recommended that one be established. Mr. Barnes called upon me later, and said such a printing house would be in line with socialistic propaganda, which would interfere with enterprise in private business."

Col. Roosevelt then explained how he gave out the offending statement. "I dictated the statement and gave it to Mr. McGrath, my secretary, and told him to give it to newspaper correspondents at Oyster Bay. I desired the statement to be published in full throughout New York state. I believed it would receive some publicity outside the state.

"I wanted to reach the voters. I knew of no other means except the newspapers."

Cross-Examination Begins.

The cross examination then began with Mr. Ivins asking Col. Roosevelt about his early life.

"Did you ever study the constitution?"

"I did while I was studying law in Columbia university. Later, however, I became an author."

"When you read the constitution of the state did you see anything about eligibility for the governorship?"

"I don't remember. I guess I did."

"What committees were you on in the assembly?"

"I was on a committee which in 1884 investigated certain officers in New City.

"That was during your second year in the legislature wasn't it?"

"Oh no, I think—"

Mr. Ivins interrupted the answer. He said, "I want answers Mr. Roosevelt, not suggestions."

"Do you know it had been the custom of legislative committees to conduct ex-parte investigations?"

"Some have done so. My committees always tried to do justice to both sides."

"Did you follow the rules of law during your investigations?"

Because He Did It.

"How do you know substantial justice was done?"

"Because I did it. When I do anything I try to see to it that justice is done."

The witness then described his campaign for mayor of New York on a republican-citizen tickets in 1886.

"Isn't it a fact that the only nomination you received was the republican?"

"I don't think so."

"Is your memory good?"

"It is pretty good."

"It has been good about certain things you have told here hasn't it?"

"Yes."

"How was your campaign carried on?"

"Principally by speeches. Some times at republican meetings and some times at citizens meetings. I was a republican."

"That was on the campaigns in which you were unsuccessful?"

"I was beaten."

"Then you took to your ranch?"

"Yes, I had been there before, however."

"Yes."

"When did you leave the ranch to become civil service commissioner?"

"In 1889."

His Payment of Taxes.

"Did you pay taxes in Oyster Bay for the next six years after that?"

"I lived there or in Washington."

"Did you pay any personal taxes in Oyster Bay?"

"My memory is that I did."

"Do you remember when you did not pay personal taxes in Oyster Bay?"

"Yes, I paid them in New York while I was police commissioner."

"How long were you police commissioner?"

"I was on the police force for two years."

"You testified yesterday that in 1898 that you resided in Washington, is that right?"

"Yes, I was living there for the purpose of carrying on my duties as assistant secretary of the navy. I was there about a year."

"In 1897 did you pay any taxes other than real estate in Oyster Bay?"

"I don't remember."

"Do you recall making an affidavit in Oyster Bay that you were a resident of New York?"

"No."

Fails to Remember.

"Are you prepared to swear you paid personal taxes either in New York or Oyster Bay in 1897?"

"I remember nothing about it."

"In 1898 did you appear before the tax commissioners in reference to your assessment."

"I don't remember."

A photograph of a tax notice sent to the witness in 1898 was introduced in the evidence. "Do you remember making an affidavit in 1898 about your New York tax assessment?"

"Yes. I made it in Washington."

The affidavit was identified by Col. Roosevelt and read. In it Col. Roosevelt said that since 1897 he had not lived in New York and that he was then a resident of Washington.

Mr. Ivins then read section 2, article provides that a person is not eligible for the governorship unless he for five years continuously had been a resident of New York state.

Col. Roosevelt said he first saw that part of the constitution after his return from the Spanish war. "I now call your attention," Mr. Ivins went on, "to a paper signed by Secretary of War Alger. It is a commission of lieutenant colonel of volunteers given to you in 1898. In this Col. Roosevelt is described as a resident of Washington."

At that point a recess was taken.

THE DEATHS.

RODEWALD.

Erwin Rodewald, aged 16 years and eight months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Rodewald, of 2319 John street, died at 7:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the family residence following an illness of three months, due to complication of diseases. He was employed at the Fort Wayne Electric works.

A Garbage Can Doesn't Amount to Much---But It May Uphold a Reputation

Have you ever glanced over the back fences at the garbage cans in the back yards of a row of city houses? Not a very inspiring prospect, to be sure; but nine times out of ten you can tell the kind of people that live in a house by the looks of the garbage can.

No good housewife wants the neighbors talking about a rusty, leaking, battered, old garbage can, smelling to heaven in her back yard. She don't want it, and she won't have it.

A large shipment of heavy galvanized garbage cans, with patent locking cover which dogs cannot knock off, is placed on special sale today. Two sizes are included, at 69c and 75c, which are regular 75c and 98c values.

CUBS DROP THE SEASON'S OPENER

Humiliated by the Voters in First Contest of the Year.

Terre Haute, Ind., April 22.—In a two hour game in which fourteen hits were scored against Ainsworth while the Cubs got seven hits off Nehf, and in which the grand total of errors ran to eight, the Highlanders walloped the Fort Wayne delegation 6 and 1 in the opening game of the league season yesterday. At no time in the game did the visitors seem to have even a slim chance.

Of the six two-base hits Beyers and Lang got one apiece, while Thomas and McCarthy evenly divided the other four. Leber scored the season's first run when he singled to right in the first and scored on McCarthy's double.

McLafferty opened the second round for the visitors with a three-bagger to left. Marshall singled and a moment later grabbed off second on a bad throw by Hartle. Hartle and Nehf went out and Thomas doubled, scoring Marshall.

But the big noise came off in the fifth. It was here that the visitors, weakened for a few minutes and allowed the last three runs to pile up on them. It was Thomas again in this inning who started things. He landed a double to right after which Gray fanned, and once more McCarthy did it for two bases, bringing Thomas home for the first run of the inning. Vann singled, advancing McCarthy to third, and a double steal took McCarthy home. Tuman then threw wild twice in succession, advancing Vann to third and then home.

The Cubs' little only was scored in the seventh after Beyers had been hit by a pitched ball and went to first. Ainsworth flied out and Smith singled to center, and when Brant singled he scored Beyers.

The crowd was one of the largest that ever opened a league season in this city, and the stands were packed. The score:

JESS GETS $13,000 FOR LICKING NEGRO

Chicago, April 22.—Thirteen thousand dollars was the sum Jess Willard received for defeating Jack Johnson at Havana, the heavyweight champion told friends here yesterday.

"Johnson received $30,000 and when I defend my title I am going to get the same amount of money he did," Willard said. The champion handed Charles Cutler, the wrestler, who first attempted to develop him as a heavyweight boxer, a check for $1,250 as compensation for the Chicago man's services.

Cutler obtained a judgment against Willard in Milwaukee for $2,500, but when they met yesterday a compromise was reached and Cutler cut the judgment in half.

SEVEN PLAYERS DROPPED.

Manager Mack Unloads Crew Before Start for Boston.

Philadelphia, April 22.—Seven players were dropped from the roster of the Philadelphia American league baseball club by Manager Mack last night before the team left for Boston. Four of these released were sent to minor league teams and three were let go unconditionally. Sam Crane, shortstop, goes to Richmond, Hank Bostick, another infielder, to Newark, and Joe Sherman, outfielder and pitcher, to Jersey City in the International league. Pitcher Gardiner goes to Newport News while Voltz, Hamilton and Reed are released unconditionally.

Pitchers Wilbur Davis and Harper and Sam McConnell, an infielder, are the only recruits to remain on the pay roll. Further cuts may be made before May 1 as Manager Mack has announced that he will carry only twenty-two players, although the league limit is twenty-five.

MACBETH SUCCEEDS E. A. MILLER

Conneaut Master Mechanic Becomes Superintendent of Motive Power.

Bulletins received here yesterday announced the appointment of H. A. Macbeth general superintendent of motive power of the Nickel Plate, to succeed E. A. Miller, deceased. Mr. Macbeth has been connected with the mechanical department of the Nickel Plate ever since the road was opened to business. When Mr. Miller was promoted, about twelve years ago, to superintendent of motive power to succeed John MacKenzie, Mr. Macbeth was advanced to master mechanic of the Conneaut shops, succeeding Mr. Miller, and now he succeeds that official as motive power superintendent. Never having been connected with the western division of the Nickel Plate, Mr. Macbeth is not generally known among the employes of the road out here.

WILL EXTEND STOCK SALE LIMIT.

Co-operative Store Company Will Keep Books Open to 30th.

Because of a general request it was announced at the meeting of the boosters of the Union Co-operative Department Store company, at Unity hall last evening, that the books of the concern would remain open until and including Friday, April 30, in order that stock may be sold up to that time. Six experienced men have applied for the managership of the company, it was announced last night, and the directors reported that this question, as well as the location of the store, would probably be made public at the meeting next Wednesday night, April 28. A total of $3,880 worth of stock was turned in at the meeting last night. The stock selling contest continues to be vigorously pushed along, with Capt. F. W. Wellemeier, of the western part of the city, slightly in the lead. W. J. McCarthy, who is the captain of the east side boosters, is not discouraged, however, and may come in ahead in the wind up. The losers have to pay the cost of a banquet for both sides.

FRED WALTERS IN RACE.

Will Be Candidate for Relief Committeeman on Pennsy.

I. Fred Walters, who has had the matter under consideration for several days, decided yesterday that he would enter the race for a member of the advisory board of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association for the Western division. Mr. Walters has had charge of the Clinton street entrance to the shops for several years and is known to all of the shopmen and many of the employes in other departments. Before taking his present position, he was employed in the train service and yard service. So far now there are three candidates in the field—Dispatcher Samuel M. Taylor, the present committeeman; Orville Irwin, of Chicago, a passenger conductor who filled the office two terms several years ago, and Mr. Walters. Last year there were four candidates and the preceding year there were five.

MAKE LIBRARY NICE PRESENT.

E. A. Barnes Sends to Its Shelves 28 Valuable Books.

E. A. Barnes, factory superintendent of the Fort Wayne Electric works, has donated twenty-eight volumes of the proceedings of the American Institute of Electric Engineers. These books are valuable for reference purposes, as they contain information upon important matters that cannot be obtained elsewhere.

WRIGHT TO GIVE LECTURE.

Will Be Principal Speaker at Meeting of Electrical Engineers.

W. O. Wright, assistant engineer of the western division of the Pennsylvania Railway company, will be the principal speaker Thursday evening at the regular meeting of the Fort Wayne branch of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers to be held in the office of the Fort Wayne Electric works on Columbia street. He will speak on the subject of electric welding. His lecture will be illustrated by lantern slides.

GOT THE WRONG PACKAGE.

Engineer Arthur Crasper, of the Nickel Plate, knows all about a locomotive, but as a plasterer's attendant he is not so much of a success. Recently he discovered his cistern empty and an investigation revealed a crack in the wall through which the water escaped. Thinking to patch the break, he lowered his son in the cistern and then went into the house and got what he supposed was a sack of plaster of paris. It didn't "mix" good, and calling a neighbor to his assistance, the latter discovered that instead of plaster of paris, Mr. Crapser had gotten hold of his wife's granulated sugar. "Don't tell anybody," was his remark to the neighbor as he started for the grocery to get another sack of sugar so Mrs. Crapser would not miss that which he had used. A brick mason was summoned and in a few minutes the cistern was "water proof."

GETS A BETTER RUN.

Charles F. Somers, the engineer on Pennsylvania trains 19 and 18 between this city and Chicago, has been transferred to a run on Nos. 18 and 17 between Fort Wayne and Crestline which is regarded a much better run than he formerly had because it is made in daylight, while the other was partly by night. Mr. Somers succeeds Engineer J. C. McCarthy, who has been sick and unable to work for three or four months.

TWO DISGUSTED FISHERMEN.

M. O. Brown and William Hyre, of the Nickel Plate, than whom no more enthusiastic and hard working fishermen ever existed, laid off yesterday and went to Pleasant Lake with great expectations. Soon after reaching the lake the winds arose and blew a gale that made it impossible for fishermen to stay on the water and they came home empty handed and greatly disgusted.

WILL ENGAGE IN BUSINESS.

A. Sionkiewicz, for a year or two employed as a helper in the Pennsylvania boiler shop, resigned this morning. He has made arrangements to engage in the grocery business in the eastern part of the city. This is the second man of foreign birth to resign this spring at the Pennsylvania boiler shop to engage in business. Both worked hard and steady and saved a good portion of their earnings.

WILL MOVE TO FLORIDA.

Joseph Grothaus, for many years employed as a blacksmith at the Pennsylvania shops and later at the round house, has resigned and will soon leave the city. Mr. Grothaus owns some valuable fruit and grain lands in Florida and he will move onto them soon, expecting to reside there permanently.

MRS. MATOTT WILL ENTERTAIN.

Mrs. C. T. Matott will be hostess tomorrow afternoon to Kekionga Aid society, Ladies' Auxiliary to the O. R. C., at her pleasant home, 242 East Woodland avenue. Mesdames Taylor and Caskey will assist Mrs. Matott in entertaining the society.

MACHINIST LOSES A THUMB.

EACH HAD FOOT INJURED.

Julius F. Doriot and Karl Braun, the former an apprentice and the latter a machinist, were injured in an almost identical manner yesterday and will be unable to work for a week or ten days. Each had a foot painfully hurt.

CALLED TO MOTHER'S BEDSIDE.

GONE TO OLD HOME TO VISIT.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Maurer have gone to their former home in Illinois to spend a week or ten days with relatives. Mr. Maurer is a Nickel Plate engineer.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

This was the semi-monthly pay day at the Fort Wayne Electric works.

Mark Heath, a Nickel Plate brakeman, is on duty again after a few days' absence.

E. O. Wagner, commercial agent of the G. R. & I., is looking after business at Richmond today.

William Kroener, jr., a clerk at the Lake Shore freight office, went to Reading, Mich, yesterday.

Firemen George Swartz, of the Nickel Plate, is taking a lay off to attend to some private business.

Assistant Foreman Fred Weideman, of the Bowser machine shop, has been sick and off duty a few days.

M. S. Hill, gang foreman of the Pennsylvania boiler shop, who had been sick several days, is working again.

Nickel Plate Brakeman R. G. Welch and J. W. Smith are taking a lay off to look after some private business.

Elmer Wiedke and H. F. Telley, of the Pennsylvania machine shop, will spend Saturday and Sunday in Chicago.

Pennsylvania Machinist A. M. Ringle was taken sick while operating his machine this morning. He had to go home.

Treasurer C. A. Dunkelberg, of S. F. Bowser & Company, has been transacting business in Chicago for a day or two.

A. S. Courtney is in Allegheny and Pittsburg this week attending to some special work for the Pennsylvania this week.

A. J. Cash, secretary of the Railroad Y. M. C. A., was in Chicago yesterday on business connected with the association.

Machinist Joseph Vodde, who was hurt two weeks ago, will report for duty at the Pennsylvania round house tomorrow.

Claim Agent Burkett, of the Nickel Plate, headquarters in Cleveland, is here today on business for the claims department.

Machinist James L. Ryan is on the job again at the Pennsylvania shops after an absence on account of an injured eye.

Master Mechanic G. W. Smith is in Toledo, and Division Storekeeper E. L. Ensel is in St. Thomas on business for the Wabash.

G. F. Belschner, of the Pennsylvania boiler shop, is off duty on account of an ulcerated tooth, which has caused his face to swell badly.

Brakeman G. E. Deahl, who had been off duty on account of the death of a relative three or four days, resumed work this morning.

Brakeman N. A. Perry, who had been engaged for a week in doing some work at his home, resumed his duties on the Nickel Plate today.

R. J. Sorg, a Pennsylvania tank repairman, is sick and off duty. J. T. Holle is also absent from the boiler shop on account of sickness.

D. T. McFee, Nickel Plate engineer, reported for duty today. He had been off to attend the funeral of Joseph Wood, who was his boyhood friend.

Mrs. H. F. Knake and daughter are enroute to Philadelphia to see her sister, who is said to be very sick. Mr. Knake is employed at the Wabash shops.

E. T. Whiter, general superintendent of the Pennsylvania Northwest system, who had been in Chicago on business, passed through the city on train No. 8 enroute to Pittsburg.

W. B. Stanford, of Philadelphia, is in the city to consult the management at S. F. Bowser and Company's plant on matters of business. Mr. Stanford is a salesman for the company.

After a successful surgical operation at the Lutheran hospital, Arnold Meyers a coremaker at the foundry of the Western Gas Construction company, is rapidly recovering at his home.

When Brakeman A. A. Brandon, of the Nickel Plate, arrived home yesterday after a trip over the division, he found Mrs. Brandon very ill. He has taken a lay off on that account.

Maurice O'Connell, a bill clerk in the American Express office at Hammond, Ind., has returned to that city, after a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis O'Connell, of 1720 High street.

E. J. McCruden, lumber inspector and timber buyer for the Nickel Plate, has completed the purchase of a lot of piling for use in the extensive improvements that are now being made at Chicago.

Fireman Meyers, who left here yesterday with the southbound freight train No. 93, fell from the running board of his engine and sustained injuries to his side which necessitated giving up work at Montpelier, where a fireman relieved him.

Detective J. Mulvihill, of the Wabash, will endeavor to prevent the stealing coal from the cars of the company which stand for awhile at Winter street. He says the loss has been considerable and much complaint made against the practice of the fuel robbers.

Conductor W. C. Flouring, who had the ligaments of one of his legs torn ten days ago, was able to report for duty this morning on the Nickel Plate. Conductor D. M. Kime also resumed work on the road this morning, after a rheumatic attack which disabled him ten days.

Switchman Thomas Hayes, of the Nickel Plate, came home from Rome City Sunday evening with forty-two bass, weighing from two pounds to five pounds each. They were caught in three days and made the prettiest string ever taken out of those waters by one man.

Prof. S. H. Welty, of the LaOtto high school, and twelve of the students visited the power plant of the traction company, the city pumping station and the Fort Wayne high school, where they were given a demonstration in wireless telegraphy by Professor Carter. The party made the trip here in automobiles.

The Peru wreck crew, which was called here yesterday morning to pick up switch engine 433, which went off the rails at Thompson avenue at 5:30 o'clock yesterday morning and came very near tumbling down the elevation, did not complete its work until nearly 6 o'clock last night. Fortunately the engine did not turn over and Engineer Voss and Fireman Golden were able to get out of the cab without being injured.

After a very unpleasant experience, Nickel Plate Engineer William Stellhorn now considers himself an expert with a motorcycle. He thought he knew something about one the other day, but a trip to New Haven on the machine of Operator C. A. Donast disabused that idea. He reached New Haven all right, but could not get the machine started for home until he had squandered three hours in the effort and then got some boys to do it for him.

For Catarrhal Deafness and Head Noises

Here in America there is much suffering from catarrh and head noises. American people would do well to consider the method employed by the English to combat this insidious disease. Everyone knows how damp the English climate is and how dampness affects those suffering from catarrh. In England they treat catarrhal deafness and head noises as a constitutional disease and use an internal remedy for it that is really very efficacious.

Sufferers who could scarcely hear a watch tick tell how they had their hearing restored by this English treatment to such an extent that the tick of a watch was plainly audible seven and eight inches away from either ear.

Therefore, if you know someone who is troubled with catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises, cut out this formula and hand it to them and you will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. The prescription can be easily prepared at home for about 75c and is made as follows:

From your druggist obtain 1 oz. of Parmint (Double Strength), about 75c worth. Take this home, and add to it ¼ pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stirr until dissolved. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

Parmint is used in this way not only to reduce by tonic action the inflammation and swelling in the Eustachian Tubes, and thus to equalize the air pressure on the drum, but to correct any excess of secretions in the middle ear, and the results it gives are usually remarkably quick and effective.

Every person who has catarrh in any form should give this recipe a trial and free themselves from this destructive disease.—Adv.

MISSION FUND INCREASING.

J. B. Franke Gives Committee a Subscription of $100.

The $15,000 fund for the new Rescue Mission is increasing steadily each day and has now exceeded the $12,000 mark. J. B. Franke of the Perfection Biscuit company, sent the committee in charge a subscription of $100 Thursday morning. F. S. Hunting, general manager of the Fort Wayne Electric works, added $150 to the fund and H. J. Keenan, of the Anthony hotel, gave a subscription of $50.

TU-BO-LAX CORRECTS CONSTIPATION

Corrects

CONSTIPATION

—in 2 MINUTES—

Adrienne, the Editor of "Health & Beauty" page in The Philadelphia Inquirer, gives Mothers this very sensible advice:

"Try to do without drugs, I say this, not from any dislike to the use of medicines in treating children, but because we are here dealing with a function that persists throughout life. If we control the function by drugs we injure the intestines in their action, so that larger and larger doses must be taken, and in the course of time nothing short of giant doses of the most powerful purgatives will effect the result desired, and as such drugs when habitually used injure the system—the condition of the sufferer is pitiable."

Had she written a whole volume she could not have said more. Only she might have added—that where children or grown folks are constipated they should—by all means, be treated with TU-BO-LAX. This laxative ointment, which is inserted in the rectum, brings immediate relief without disturbing the stomach, intestines or any part of the body, and soon habituates the lower bowel to act regularly without assistance. Treating Constipation through the mouth in any shape will soon be tabooed by the Medical Profession. We want everybody to realize the fact that the lower bowel is nothing more or less than a sewer pipe, and when it becomes clogged or fails to evacuate the refuse matter—it upsets digestion, creating dyspepsia, nervousness, liver ailments, sick headache and general debility.

If you are constipated—try TU-BO-LAX, and in 2 MINUTES you will be grateful for this advice. You will have no more use for Cathartics. TU-BO-LAX is as pleasant and easily used as taking a swallow of water. It gives you one complete evacuation, and avoids the weakening effect of Cathartics that may operate a half dozen times, just when it is most inconvenient.

All druggists sell it—or upon receipt of 25 cents we will mail you a package.

The Promise of A Better Tire Day

Goodyear Fortified Tires came, years ago, to promise men a better tire day. And that promise was fulfilled.

They made Goodyear the largest-selling tire in the world, a place it has held ever since. Last year men bought 1,479,883—about one for each car in use.

Not Magical

Don't expect in the Goodyear a magical tire. It is not exempt from mishap and misuse.

It won top place because it averaged best. It did that because, in five great ways, it excels every other tire. It combats in five ways, exclusive to Goodyears, these six major troubles—

Rim-Cuts	Insecurity
Blowouts	Punctures
Loose Treads	Skidding

One way—our "On-Air" cure—costs us $450,000 yearly. One comes through forming in each tire hundreds of large rubber rivets. One compels us to vulcanize in each tire base 126 braided piano wires.

One comes through our double-thick All-Weather tread, with its sharp, tough, resistless grips. These things together mean a super-tire.

Lower Prices

Yet these costly-built tires, in the past two years, have been thrice reduced in price. Our last reduction—on February 1st—brings the two-year total to 45%.

Never has a tire given so much for the money as Fortified Tires do now. We ask you, for your own sake, to prove it. Any dealer will supply you.

THE MARKETS.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, April 22.—Rains tending to relieve drought condition east of the Mississippi more than offset in the wheat market today the effect of bullish cables. After opening unchanged to 1⅝c higher, the market scored a little further gain, and then receded to below last night's level.

Corn gave way with wheat. The opening here, which varied from a shade off to ⅛c advance, was followed by a moderate setback all around.

Oats weakened as a result of the plentiful moisture supply.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, April 22.—With few exceptions leading stocks were lower almost to the point of heaviness at the outset of today's operations. U. S. Steel, Union Pacific, Amalgamated Copper and other issues which form the bulk of each session's business declined from material fractions to a point. R. Island and Southwestern Railway shares added to yesterday's losses and Bethlehem Steel also went a point lower. The only feature of pronounced strength was the tobacco issues, which gained from three to sixteen points. Trading lacked the furious activity of recent openings, all offerings being in moderate amounts.

For the first time in over a fortnight business in the early session held within normal bounds. Standard shares made some recovery from opening declines, but coppers were the conspicuous feature, Amalgamated, Utah, Inspiration and others of that group going above yesterday's high quotations. Steel continued under pressure but a number of industrials and equipments rose two to five points. Further additions were made to gains in tobaccos which seemed to be based primarily on sentimental considerations. Railways of the higher class were almost neglected but towards midday Union Pacific and Reading rose on renewed inquiry. Bonds were firm.

Lowest prices were made in the last hour, principal issues then showing losses of one to almost two points. The closing was irregular.

Zollars Park is an addition bounded by Wildwood, Kinnaird, Indiana and Beaver Avenues.

Five years ago, in 1910, lots in that addition sold for $500.

Today they are worth $1,500.

The growth of Fort Wayne, especially strong southwards, has brought about this phenomenal increase in values.

The southward trend of Fort Wayne, now stronger than ever, will work a corresponding increase in the values of all lots in that direction.

Chicago Heiress Bride is Up Against Parental Interdiction.

Denver, Col., April 22.—Cards announcing the wedding of Miss Louise Besly, the beautiful 19 year old Chicago heiress, to Thomas Wesley Osborne, of Denver, will be issued this week, but Mrs. Osborne will be immediately taken back to her home in Hinsdale, Ill., with her mother, and a probationary wait of a year will be imposed on the newly weds before the young couple will be allowed to live together. The bride is reported to be worth $150,000 in her own right and will inherit nearly a million dollars more.

This is the mandate issued by Mrs. Charles Howard Besly, of Hinsdale, a Chicago suburb, mother of the bride and wife of the late C. H. Besly, of the Besly Machinery and Manufacturing company, of Chicago, who is in Denver, following the announcement of the marriage.

According to relatives of Mrs. Besly she returned to Denver with her daughter in order that arrangements for an annulment of the marriage might be agreed upon between herself and the parents of the bridegroom, but all steps in that direction failing, the announcement of the wedding will be made, followed by the hasty removal of the bride to her former home.

HETTRICK FOUND GUILTY.

Toledo Jury Convicts of Second Degree Murder in Case of Fort Wayne Man.

Toledo, Ohio, April 22.—After deliberating forty minutes a jury in the court of common pleas here returned a verdict finding Al Tettrick, of Fort Wayne, guilty of murder in the second degree for the killing of Mrs. Carrie Jones Barlow, his mistress, in this city, the 27th of last January. Hettrick did not deny the killing, but made the plea that he was so intoxicated at the time that he did not know what he was doing. The tragedy was the outgrowth of a quarrel Hettrick had with the woman for the possession of some rings of which he claimed ownership.

Al Hettrick and Mrs. Barlow resided in Fort Wayne at a hotel near the south railroads for several months and passed themselves as a married couple. He is said to have been a railroad man and to have been of sober habits until he discovered the woman was keeping the company of other men and was going automobile riding and drinking in wine rooms with them. Then Hettrick began drinking heavily and quarreled with her. They went from here to Toledo a short time before the tragedy that resulted in the murder of Mrs. Barlow.

PLEADS GUILTY TO BURGLARY CHARGE

Frank Wheeler, Caught at His Work, Makes No Defense.

Frank Wheeler, aged 23, who was caught red-handed committing burglary in the offices of the Horton Manufacturing company, in the western part of the city, at 9 o'clock Wednesday night, was arraigned in the city court Thursday morning, on a burglary charge and entered a plea of guilty. His bond was fixed at $1,000 and he went to jail. Wheeler's arrest was brought about by William Hall, the bookkeeper, who lives opposite the factory, and who had seen a light above his own desk. He suspected that something was wrong and telephoned the police. The patrol wagon with Night Stationmaster Fred Fry, Patrolman John Godfrey and Driver Gus Buuck made a hurried run and found Wheeler rifling drawers in the desk, as Mr. Hall softly turned the key in the office door. Wheeler, who was in his stocking feet, heard the click of the lock and ran from the desk through a short hallway to reach an open window through which he had gained entrance, but a shot from Officer Fry's revolver planted a bullet near his feet and he stopped. Wheeler told the officers at headquarters that he is a French-Indian native of New York, with his home in Ogdensburg. He confesses to a criminal record, having been released from the Elmira, N. Y., penitentiary April 8, coming directly to Fort Wayne.

Bicycle Thief is Held.

Grant Lochindar, charged with grand larceny, was bound over to the circuit court and in default of bond of $1,000 went to jail. He stole a new bicycle, valued at $35, from Edgar Burger, a boy who resides in the country. When taken before Chief Lenz the thief put on a bold front and put on an exhibition of nerve that astonished the chief. He denied that a photograph of himself was a picture of him, said his name was Herschell Dunn and his residence at 1857 East Thirtieth street, South Lorain, Ohio, and that he had a brother in Lorain who is a lawyer.

"You can find out about me in twenty minutes by telephone and there is the money to pay the charges," said Lochindar, as he slapped a couple of silver dollars on the chief's desk.

Lochindar admits that he has been stealing bicycles, having taken one at Lima, Ohio, which he sold in Delphos, and another at Findlay, which he sold to a man in the country. He came to Fort Wayne and a week ago stole young Burger's wheel. He was arrested by Sergeant Detective Peter Junk, who had been detailed on the case.

Other City Court Cases.

Tom Murray, a vag, who had been hanging about all day Wednesday at Peter Tanis' saloon, John and Wallace streets, where the safe burglary was pulled off at noon that day, was found guilty and fined $5 and costs. It is thought he may know something of the daring job.

Six of the sixteen hobos caught in the police dragnet Tuesday night were brought into court and given a chance to leave the city and all of them promised to make a prompt getaway.

HAS A POLICE RECORD.

Frank Penninger, the young man who was arrested as a suspicious character and held on a loitering charge, denied to Detective Sergeants Spillner and Junk, who pinched him, that he had ever done anything wrong, has been found to have an extensive record in Toledo as a criminal. He is believed to know something about the street car hold-up in the east end of the city a week ago and to have been concerned in the attempt to burglarize the George Abdon saloon on Winter street a few nights since.

HORSES RUN AWAY.

Milk Wagon of J. O. Strombeck, Rural Route 6, Put Out of Commission.

While delivering milk at a home on Fulton street Thursday morning, a team of horses belonging to J. O. Strombeck became frightened at a passing automobile and ran away. The horses turned on Harrison street and proceeded north at breakneck speed to Main street, where in attempting to make a turn they ran into a lamp post, with the result that the milk wagon was put out of commission. Strombeck lives on rural route 6.

A meeting of those interested in the proposed lake at the Rudisill dam north of the city will be held Thursday evening in the office of A. J. Vesey.
